WHAT KIND OF GUEST ARE YOU?

Many times during the year girls from Crowell spend the night or week-end with girl friends who live out of town. Then too, many of these visits are returned. Visiting in this way will help girls to greater poise, but some guests do not seem to be wanted again while others are asked back again and again.

Some of the reasons for not being asked back are not in the etiquette books. A guest may have the best of table manners and always be polite but then that something is lacking. The guest who stays in bed while her hostess cleans the room or forgets and leaves a ring around the bathtub can hardly make up for it by saying "Excuse me," when she leaves the table. Probably the most unwelcome guest is the one who causes her hostesses to stay out later than she should. She isn't the one who will get the punishment, so why worry?

Thoughtlessness leads to these things. Courtesy and consideration by the guest for her hostess will be long remembered. When Jean wants to invite someone to spend the night, she will probably remember how nice a certain girl is.

A gift is not always necessary, but it would only take a few minutes to write a letter to your hostess and her mother, thanking them for the hospitality you received.

HOME ECONOMICS NOTES

White Elephant Sale
 If you have something you have no use for and someone else might use it, the Home Economics Department would be delighted to have it. Maybe you have outgrown a shirt or have a baseball bat without a ball. This rummage sale has been put off two weeks, but Saturday why not mosey down to the corner by Wehba's Grocery Store and see if there is not something there you or your family can use.

Mr. Or Miss 5 ft. by 5 in?"

So this describes you. Well, does it? Here's what to do, pass up the candy stand before dinner or after school. Eating between meals may really make you dread to look in the mirror. The football boys are asked not to eat sweets because Red says it makes them soft. If they can resist, so can we. Well, we can try anyhow.

FHA PINS and BRACELETS

The FHA Chapter in Crowell has voted to have pins this year. The pins are small red and silver miniatures of the FHA seal. On the silver chain between the pin and guard the symbols denoting the different tests of the FHA the wearer has passed may be worn. Some of the girls preferred silver bracelets to pins. In the bracelets the seal is mounted like on identification bracelets. The orders will be sent off soon; you will see the girls wearing their attractive club pins.

New F. H. A. Officers

The first regular meeting of the F. H. A. Club was held Thursday at noon. During the meeting this list of officers was announced: President, Mary Norman; Vice President, Peggy Eavenson; Secretary, Clara Jones; Treasurer, Letha Marlow; Reporter, Mildred Tamplin; Parliamentarian, La Verne Farrar; Sergeants at Arms, Lora Abston and Betty Jo Smith; Pianist, Betty Barker; Song Leaders, Bobbie Abston and Rozella Autry; and Reporter, Mildred Tamplin.

Members were served a meal by the second and third year classes. It was an interesting program, and we will continue having the programs at noon.

Kenner Attends Homemaking Conference

Mrs. Doyle Kenner, homemaking teacher, attended the homemaking conference held in Canyon, Texas, Saturday, Oct. 11. According to Mrs. Kenner some wonderful exhibits were on display, and one of the most interesting was "dove making." About 29 counties were represented.

SPECIAL ASSEMBLIES

CHS has had the privilege of hearing Rev. N. B. Moon, pastor of the Baptist Church, who spoke to us on "Deserts of Waiting."

Rev. G. Smith, pastor of the Baptist Church at Trusecott and Foard City, gave the assembly three points for happiness. They were: make friends, prepare for the future and take advantage of your opportunities.

Rev. L. B. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist Churches at Thalia and Margaret, told us the story of David and Goliath. He pointed out that faith could overcome the impossible.

The first in a series of special paid assemblies was presented in September, when Mr. Bob Brown featured the "Science Circus."

Victor Christian volunteered his services in having his voice changed by helium gas. With the auditorium darkened, Mr. Brown showed the paint which fluoresced in ultra-violet light. He also explained something of the atom bomb, showing a piece of uranium ore to demonstrate the gamma rays. He extended an invitation to us from Crowell High to join an organization to promote knowledge of the atom bomb.

In demonstrating the different frequencies in a current, Mr. Brown charged Ruth Slovak with harmless high voltage taken into her body through fluorescent tube.

Then connecting the current to her by means of an arm band, he lit a torch from a piece of glass placed in her hand, and a cigarette from a spoon placed in her mouth. He then lit the neon sign by placing the tube to Kenneth Ownbey's nose. Kenneth was receiving voltage by standing near Ruth.

Our next assembly attraction will be November 7, when Fayssus the hypnotist, will be here.

SENIOR PICNIC

Last Tuesday evening found the seniors at the North Pocket Park. The occasion was their first picnic of the year. Roasting weiners and eating hot dogs with icy cokes came to a big climax when a delightful cake with CHS written on top was served. Umm! Thanks to Mrs. Richard Brock.

Suddenly piercing screams filled the air. Was it a snake? No, only the beginning of a big ice fight. By the way, Mr. Black, did you get that ice out of your shirt? Our thanks to our sponsor, Henry Black, and classmothers for making the picnic a big success—Mrs. J. E. Brock, Mrs. H. K. Edwards, Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Mrs. T. N. Abston, and Mrs. L. H. Williams.

Blue-Eyed Senior Prefers Farming and Matrimony

Blue-eyed Kenneth Ownbey claims the spotlight this week as senior personality. He is eighteen years old, has brown hair, and is 5 ft. 10 in. tall.

Kenneth chooses hill billy music as his favorite type while "California Polka" rates highest as a song. He prefers blondes and sweet tempered girls. (By the way his pet peeve is "smart aleck girls"). His favorite dish is pecan pie topped with strawberry ice cream. (Sounds good, Kenneth). Football antics fill up most of his time, but as a fill-in he likes to dance. Betty Hutton and Glen Ford make up his favored cast of movie actors.

His secret ambition is to be a farmer so naturally VA tops his list of subjects. Kenneth is planning a trip after graduation and after that he plans to find some sweet girl with matrimony uppermost in mind.

Have you seen the cute, green-eyed, black-haired freshman girl slowly making her way to the top of the stairs? If you wonder why she isn't rushing like the rest of us, it's because she has fallen down those too treacherous stairs so many times. This girl stands 5 ft. 3 in. without her loafers. She likes nothing better than to see the Wildcats playing football. She had rather eat fried chicken and angel food cake than anything you may name. She plans to go to college at TSCW and major in math, her favorite subject. No wonder, she's so clever. Hear! Hear! Her secret ambition is to be a housewife, and she prefers a blonde husband. Her pet peeve is to see girls smoking or drinking. Just take her to see a show with Gregory Peck or June Allyson, and she'll love you for life. Of course, it's none other than Peggy Traweck.

For if ye turn again unto the Lord, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again unto this land; for the Lord your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

Some people use their last will and testament as a means of showing to the world how little they think of their relatives. Such wills as a rule are drawn while the maker of the will is in a vindictive frame of mind.

The gates of heaven are wide and high to admit the huge throng that daily appears before them for admission, but they are not wide enough and high enough to admit the man who carries on his back even a small sack of grudges and unforiveness he has accumulated and treasured while on earth.

HISTORY

Dedication of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg - November 19: The burying ground of those who lost their lives in the battle of Gettysburg fought on July 1, 2 and 3, 1863, was dedicated as a National cemetery on November 19, 1863. Some 163,000 men were engaged on both sides in the three days battle.

General Eisenhower has dodged all around the direct question of whether or not he offered the candidacy for the presidency he would refuse it. His answers resemble the one given on one occasion. They change their reason recently: "Honestly I don't see how I can answer that. People like to know that I want nothing to do with politics and I want no political office. I honestly mean that I want nothing to do with it."

What We Think

(By Frank Dixon)

The Coronet magazine in my opinion is making a very considerable contribution to society in its articles on Sex Crimes.

The records show that there are committed in this country each year upwards of 40,000 sex crimes.

By sex crimes is not meant merely a violation of the social purity laws. The record includes only those instances in which children and young girls and women are criminally and forcibly assaulted and in a good many instances mutilated and murdered.

It is safe to say that the number, if it included those women who for fear of publicity fail to report that they have been attacked to the authorities would be five times as large as it is.

Even the known record of 40,000 such cases is enough to awaken even the most lethargic and indifferent law making bodies to action.

Two things are necessary if anything is going to be accomplished. Parents are going to have to warn their children never to accept rides from strangers and to beware of men who attempt to make friends with them by proffering gifts of candy, etc. Also parents should see to it that their children on returning from a party or the movies do not have to return home any distance alone after dark.

It demands first that proper legislation to deal with criminals of this type should be passed. Second no parole should ever be issued by any parole board to any sex pervert. If the laws of a state do not make such action possible they should be changed. There is no defense that any governor or parole board can offer to society for paroling a sex pervert. I have been amazed at the number of these horror stories I have read in the news in which the announcement appeared that the criminal had recently been paroled after committing a similar offense.

In my opinion our method of handling such criminals is a reproach upon the nation. By our method and our system we play into the hands of the criminal an officer, a governor, or a parole board, who releases such a criminal upon society before he has served the last hour of the sentence that the law will permit.

is in my opinion an accessory to his further outrages against society.

I do not know what it is going to take to awaken the country to action. It may be that many more homes will have to be struck, 80,000 or 160,000, before the country wakes up and does the thing it should and can do.

All power to the Coronet and other publications for their fine public service in bringing before people the ugly revolting facts of a type of crime against society that can and should be radically reduced.

The sardine schools which annually visited the California coast have been lost. For some reason sardines have deserted their usual route. A legislative grant of $300,000 has been voted to finance a search for the lost school of sardines. The industry at its height employed 25,000 men in a $5 million dollar industry which provided a billion pounds of food annually.

Independent Phone Industry Celebrates 50th Anniversary

The Independent telephone industry, which through its approximately 6,000 companies, serves 12,000 communities—a most twice as many localities in the United States as the huge Bell System—commemorated this fall its 50th "Golden Jubilee" anniversary of the founding of the industry's national organization, the U. S. Independent Telephone Association, at the USITA annual convention in Chicago, October 13-16.

The Southwestern Associated Telephone Company, which operates the telephone service of Seymour and its surrounding territory, is one of the companies participating in the celebration at Chicago. Representing the company at Chicago was R. B. Fairly, President, Roy Autry, Vice President and General Manager, and E. C. Brink, Auditor.

The plans for the 50th anniversary celebration in Chicago were announced by the Foard County News by E. A. Robinette, District Manager of the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company.

Nationally known speakers, including Dr. Frank B. Jewett, wartime President of the National Academy of Science, Maj. Gen. Manton E. Eddy, D-Day Commanding General of the famed 9th Division, and Dean James E. McCarthy, of the College of Commerce of Notre Dame University, and Vice President Keith S. McHugh of the American Tel. & Tel. Company, will deliver the major addresses at the convention.

The Bell Telephone System will honor the Golden Jubilee celebration in its weekly nationwide broadcast concert, "The Telephone Hour," with a special salute to the Independent industry.

Characterized by leading observers as one of the most efficient and successful groups of small businesses in the United States, the more than 6,000 independent companies serve six million subscribers from their 12,000 exchanges. Most of the companies are small, yet the industry serves more than 250 towns and cities with 2,000 or more telephone subscribers. The Independent's total investment in equipment and lines is well over three-quarters of a billion dollars. Nearly 40 companies have gross revenues of more than $1,000,000 a year.

Independent telephone companies, fully as much as the Bell System, are regarded as leading examples of United States free enterprise in an industry which is government-owned and operated in most foreign countries. The U. S. telephone industry's answer to government operation elsewhere is its service, far superior to that of any other nation, and the fact that the United States, with 33.6 million telephones, has about 10 million more telephones than the rest of the world combined.

"Inner Sanctum Hour" to Show at Rialto Oct. 28

Dr. London will present his "Inner Sanctum Hour" show at the Rialto Theatre on Tuesday night, Oct. 28. Literally, or almost literally, Dr. London charms his audience by beheading innocent victims.

In what marks his first local appearance, the smoothly operating maestro of magic brings a shapely crew of assistants to witness the holocaust and encourage the victims.

Dr. London's masterful presentation of the magic art furnishes an entertaining buildup for the main show. He amuses the audience with the usually quicker-than-the-eye performance of illusions, performed however, with unusual dexterity.

The part of the act that sets the audience on its ear in the impromptu and unwitting performance put on by volunteers. These people are obviously unaware of what is going to befall them, and it is just as well.

SURPLUS
NEWS
Agricultural representatives for the War Assets Administration are encouraging the purchase of war surplus explosive agents for the use of farmers, ranchers and construction men. Approximately one million pounds of both TNT and demolition blocks, stored at the Red River Arsenal, are now on the surplus property market at low prices per pounds or block.
Contrary to popular belief, handling of the powerful TNT has been demonstrated to be somewhat safer than dynamite, for example.
The place for complete details and ordering of either type of surplus explosives is the WAA's Customer Service Center, Grand Prairie.

World War II veterans will find it profitable to call in person at the Grand Prairie Customer Service Center when they are in the vicinity of Dallas or Fort Worth.
A new veterans counter for the sale of set-aside items on a cash and carry basis has been added to the center's facilities. Whenever supplies of these items become available, they are immediately placed on sale in the center, and rationed out to each veteran customer. No certification is needed other than discharge papers or other proof of service. Although such supplies have been quite limited thus far, quantities of blankets, watches and clothing items have already been distributed over this veterans counter.

A survey of war surplus inventories in Texas indicated this week that while present stocks of personal property are comparatively small, the amount of real property, particularly camp buildings, available for sale in the area will be considerable in the coming weeks. Present disposal plans give priority groups the opening option period on such property, with buildings and plants then offered on a non-priority basis to the public at large.

One of WAA's biggest offerings of surplus drugs and medical supplies will be available to veterans, priority buyers and the public on a national scale beginning October 27. More than ten million dollars worth of drugs and medicines, surgical and dental instruments and laboratory and hospital supplies are going on sale at the Louisville, Ky., medical depot.
Many buyers will be able to qualify for a "small business" priority, it was pointed out. Interested persons are invited to contact the WAA Customer Service Center,
410 West Jefferson St., Louisville, Ky.

First step in the disposal of another big Texas military installation, Camp Swift, at Bastrop, was undertaken this week with announcement that priority groups have until October 27 to claim some 2,150 buildings and 715 acres at the site. In accordance with WAA's new disposal plan, any real property not disposed of to governmental groups and non-profit institutions within the initial period later will be offered to the public at informal bidding.

A "We, the People" radio program in which the former "Dr. I.
Q." outlined his plans for entering the ministry has resulted in the acquisition of a surplus Camp
Bowie chapel by the Eastland,
Texas, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church. A member of the Grand

Sunday School Lesson
By LOUIE D. NEWTON, D.D.

SCRIPTURE: James 1-2; Matthew 5:34-46.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Matthew
15:27.

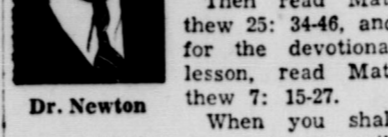

Religion in Practice

Lesson for October 26, 1947

SUNDAY'S lesson takes us to one of the practical Christian preachers of the New Testament.
Please open your Bible to the Epistle of James, and read especially the first two chapters. James was a man of great faith, but he realized, as we must realize, that faith is best expressed in works.

Then read Matthew 23:34-46, and for the devotional
lesson, read Matthew 7:15-27.

When you shall have read these passages, you will then be ready for the consideration of religion in everyday life.

Dr. Newton

A Cup of Cold Water

WHAT, someone will be asking,
can I do to show my desire to be of actual service, in the name of Jesus. Jesus tells us. He says that whoever shall give a cup of cold water in His name is doing the will
of God.

What, someone will be asking,
can I do to show my desire to be of actual service, in the name of Jesus. Jesus tells us. He says that
whoever shall give a cup of cold
water in His name is doing the will
of God.

We live in a world that poignantly waits for a cup of cold water.
I have just returned from another trip through Europe. I was there in 1946, and I felt then that life in Europe had reached the last possible expression of need. But this past summer I was startled to witness a still greater need.

The question that immediately came to mind as I observed conditions in Germany and England and other countries this past summer was this, What can we do to meet such need? And the answer was ready at hand—give them that what you have, in the name of Jesus.

Doers of the Word

James makes much of practical religion in everyday life. He tells us that we are to be doers of the word and not mere sayers of the word, or hearers of the word. And here he means the Word of God
—the will of God.

Is there a misunderstood boy in your block? Is there a girl in your class at school who suffers from some bitter criticism? This lesson would suggest to every Christian boy and girl to go in sympathetic understanding to such neighbors and help them to overcome these handicaps. Thus we become doers of the will of God.

Living Our Religion

What we determine what people think of our religion, not what we say about our religious life. James tells us in Sunday's lesson that faith without works is dead. It is that very truth that our generation so much needs to get hold upon.

We have many perplexing situations in our world. Racial differences, differences regarding capital and labor, and so forth and so on.

How are these problems to be solved? By resolutions? We know that many very pious resolutions have been adopted concerning these problems, but still the problems remain.

One Christian in any given community who applies the teaching of James to everyday life will start a train of events that will add up to the solution of any problem, social, economic or what not. We must translate our beliefs into action.

The More Excellent Way

James goes on to assure us that when we undertake faithfully to live our religion, we may confidently claim the promise of God that if any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God who giveth liberally unto all men, and unbradeth not.

The conclusion of the whole
listening to the broadcast by Rev.
James McCallin, former network announcer, mailed him a letter inviting consideration of his new congregation to the Brownwood camp's chapels, and the transaction followed.

The carbon black plant at Seagraves, Texas, now under lease by the Columbia Carbon Company, is up for sale. Sealed bids will be considered by WAA's Office of Real Property, at Grand Prairie, until November 5.

Between 400,000 and 500,000
new business firms are opened up in the United States each year and each year for various reasons about the same number close their doors.

Wide satin ribbon, lettered in gold with the honoree's name, extended the length of the table and the lovely white and gold birthday cake and punch bowl which was surrounded by colorful flowers and yellow candles in crystal holders, yellow mums, orchid asters and fern completed the table decoration.

Tiny napkins and a small picture of Mrs. Cooper were placed on each plate. Mrs. Jimmy O'Day of Dallas poured punch and further assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Jeff Bruce, Mrs. Reeta Womack, Mrs. Milton Hunter and Mrs. Neva Olds.

Mrs. Zola Greening invited the guests from the dining room into a gift room where the friendship remembrances to Mrs. Cooper were seen. Mrs. D. D. Denison played incidental piano music during the reception hours.

Games were played in the yard. The refreshment table was lovely with a May Pole around which animal vases of flowers were arranged for a dance. Guests for the party were Charles Carroll, Miles Welch, Bob Borchardt, Thomas Crowell, Linda Lanier, Sue Bursley, Judy Borchardt, Ray Thomson and Kerry Brown.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

On the afternoon of October 15 at the Club House, Mesdames H. C. Brown and L. E. Archer were hostesses to the members of the Adolphian Club.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. Archer, as substitute leader, gave a short resume of the life of the author, Sinclair Lewis. She then introduced Mrs. Lewis Sloan, who very ably reviewed one of Sinclair Lewis' latest books, "Kingsblood Royal." This book portrays the lives of Neil and Vestal Kingsblood and their daughter, Biddy. It tells of Neil's search for the names and records of the lives of his ancestors and all the vicissitudes which befell him after he had secured the information. It brings to light one of the more debatable questions which is being discussed in the United States at the present time.

The hostesses served a tempting salad course to twenty-five members.

Ronald Coleman to Appear in "The Late John Apley," Rialto

Still maintaining his handsome dignity, Ronald Coleman recently came out of a two-year self-imposed retirement to play the surprising title role in Twentieth Century-Fox's rollicking film version of John P. Marquand's "The Late John Apley," which opens Wednesday, Oct. 29 at the Rialto Theatre and the hostess, Mrs. Welch.

The next regular meeting will be with Mrs. Allison Denton on Nov. 6th at which time officers will be elected.

Young People of Methodist Church Have Party Monday

The Young People of the Methodist Church were entertained Monday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bartley. Mrs. D. D. Denison and Miss Frankie Kirkpatrick were in charge of the diversion.

Refreshments of apples and popcorn balls were served to the following: Margaret Thompson, Peggy Weaver, Peggy Pittillo, Jane Bruce, Dorothy Thompson, Shirley Webba, George Ann Ricks, Bessie Franklin, Barbara White, Essie Franklin, Loretta Lyons, Virginia McKown, Jean Hughston, Mary Cooper, Louis Gordon, Neva Lou Potts, J. C. Thompson, Marcia Kincaid, Joline Lanier, Betty Bartley, Rondyn Self, Joyzelle Thomson, Baxter Gentry, F. L. Ballard, J. P. Bartley, E. W. Kidd, Haskell Norman, Jim Paul Norman, Mary Edna Norman, Myrtle Bartley, Paul Jones and Harold Thomson.

His role is that of a staid, prim and circumspect resident of Boston, who learns about life from vivacious Peggy Cummins, sensational young British new-comer to the American screen.

"I had been reading scripts for the last two years," Colman says, "but I didn't come across anything I really wanted to do until Twentieth Century-Fox sent me the Apley story. This is the first time I've played a stuffed shirt; after twenty-five years in motion pictures, I finally become the kind of a man I hope I never will be in real life."

The actor disclosed that the script, prepared by Philip Dunne, follows the Broadway play treatment more closely than it does the Pulitzer Prize-winning book for which the studio paid a record price. This price included both stage and book rights.

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

Members of the Foard City Woman's Society of Christian Service met on Monday, Oct. 20, with Mrs. W. L. Johnson as hostess. The meeting opened with the song, "Footsteps of Jesus," after which Mrs. J. M. Barker led in prayer. The business session followed, with plans being made for the Week of Prayer program for Oct. 27, to take place in the home of Mrs. J. M. Barker.

The devotional, based on Psalms, was brought by Mrs. Laura Johnson. She stressed the importance of trusting in the Lord, fretting not for things material or unnecessary, but committing to Him our personal problems and our ambitions. If we put God first, we shall find Him more than sufficient. She concluded with a prayer "Our Father, help us to trust Thee more fully and to realize that Thy plans for Thy other children will not hurt nor hinder us. Help Thy children all to work together to make Thy world as beautiful as Thou has planned. In Jesus' name. Amen."

Mrs. Howard Ferguson reviewed the chapter "The Revival of Europe" from the book "Committed To Us" now being studied by the society. She told of work that was done during the war. Christians in Europe joined forces to aid Semitic Christians, persecuted by the Nazi. In communist-controlled countries today, the church is not a free agent but Christ's cause is being furthered despite this handicap.

England is spiritually, economically world-weary, yet she is giving generously to foreign missions. In Russia the religious situation is clouded but recently there has been a revival of religion in all classes. One report stated that the enthusiasm of believers in Russia is unbelievably great.

This report from Europe makes one feel the necessity of making North America Christian, for, although this is called a Christian nation, the headlines of the newspapers would cause a newcomer some serious questioning.

Mrs. J. M. Barker gave some interesting facts concerning the World Federation of Methodist Women and dismissed the group with a prayer for great faith in this day of confusion and distress.

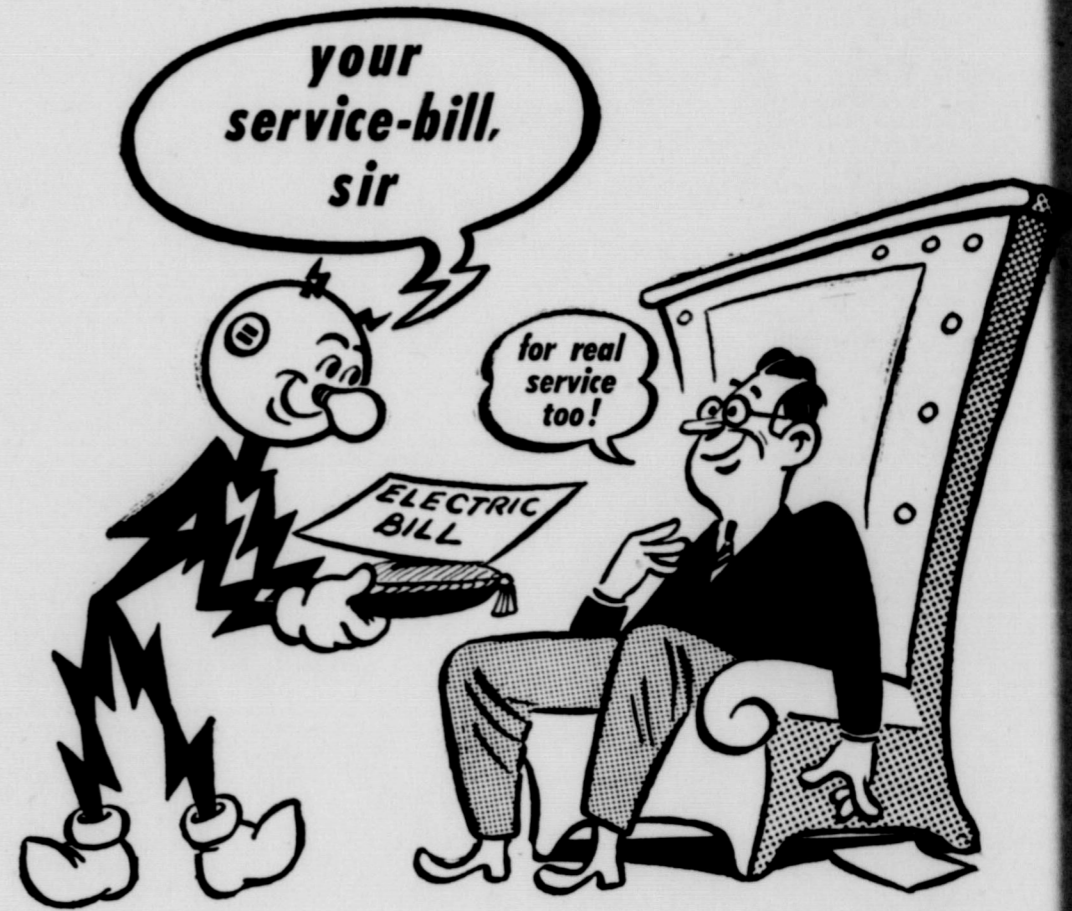

Delicious chocolate cup cakes and orange punch, carrying out the Halloween theme, were served by the hostess to those present.

"And I don't mean electric light bill, either. It's a service bill today."

Because lights are only a small part of it. It's a cooking bill and a cleaning bill and a heating bill and a cooling bill and a hot-water bill, as well. It covers food preservation and entertainment and washing and ironing and telling and sewing and a lot of other things besides. It's the biggest bargain in your family budget. When the cost of practically everything else has gone UP, the price of your electric service has stayed modestly LOW. You are now getting twice as much electricity for your budget dollar as you did 20 years ago—electricity is doing many, many more jobs than it did then."
