OVER 500 AT BARBECUE IN EASTLAND NOV. 7

Over 500 cattlemen, farmers and businessmen from all parts of the county were guests of the Eastland County Livestock Raisers Association at their annual barbecue at the City Park in Eastland last Thursday night, November 7, according to reports of those attending.

Beginning at 6:30 o'clock on that date the group feasted on barbecued beef, goats, bread, pickles, beans, onions and coffee, prepared and served by members of the association formed four years ago to help promote the livestock industry in the county.

Dan Childress, former past president of the Association acted as master of ceremonies following the feed. Those on the program were: Fred Brown, Eastland banker and cattleman, as well as an officer of the association; J. M. Sauls, Cisco, who informed the group that the new livestock show barn, constructed this summer was ready for the show in that city on February 21 and 22, and invited all members to bring animals to the show; Judge Clyde Grissom, Eastland, prominent attorney and Hereford breeder who told the group of the future possibilities of such an organization and L. R. Pearson, Ranger, oil man and lawyer and rancher. Pearson commented on the better quality of cattle found in Eastland County today compared with a few short years ago.

M. E. Fry, Cisco, new president of the association was introduced and spoke briefly to the group. Fry, formerly of Brown county is a breeder of polled Herefords. Childress thanked the committee composed of C. M. McCain, Pete Tindall, Sid Arthur, Jr., Brandy Humphries and Hoyt Davis of Eastland and George Fee and Sutton Crofts of Cisco for their work in the preparation of the barbecue and trimmings. He also thanked several commercial concerns for donations of paper plates, paper cups, coffee and other commodities.

An invitation was extended to anyone in the group to join the Association at the conclusion and many of those present joined. The barbecue is an annual affair and usually held at the city park in Eastland.

One of the foremost objectives of the association was accomplished when the new show barn was built near Cisco. Eastland, Ranger and Cisco were invited by the association to submit plans and proposals for such a show barn where a annual show could be held last spring. Each town submitted a plan last summer. The directors voted to accept the Cisco bid and have their annual show in that city for the next five years.

Before the war, the average American woman with a family spent about five hours a day in the kitchen.

Aaron Buys Line To Brownsfield

Johnnie Aaron of the West Texas Transportation Company announces that his company has purchased the Brownsfield bus line from Eastland to Brownsfield via Stamford, Rotan and Post, heretofore under lease from the Continental Trailways.

The West Texas Transportation Company, Aaron said, will maintain permanent headquarters in Eastland and plan to extend their shops and maintenance department in Eastland.

The new route from Eastland to Brownsfield, now in operation by West Texas Transportation Company, is, according to Aaron, the most direct route from Eastland to Amarillo, Lubbock, Hobbs and Carlsbad, New Mexico.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved; the treasurer's report was read and the finance chairman gave the report on the Halloween carnival.

Mrs. D. F. Williamson gave a very interesting talk on the subject of "Giving Thanks." Present were: Mrs. Frances Cooper, Mrs. Josie Nix, Mrs. H. Tankersley, Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap, Mrs. Brockman, Mrs. D. D. Franklin, Mrs. T. L. Wheat, Mrs. J. B. Harbin, Mrs. O. H. Williamson, Mr. Harris, Mrs. P. L. Crossley, Mrs. Millican, Mrs. W. E. Tankersley and Mrs. A. F. Beck.

Mrs. Frances Cooper had charge of the room program.

MODEL PLANE SHOW SUNDAY WAS VERY SUCCESSFUL ONE

The model airplane show and contest held Sunday afternoon at the Eastland airport was a success from every standpoint. Those sponsoring the affair state. A large number of planes were entered and much interest was shown in the exhibits.

ARMISTICE DAY HERE Armistice Day was quietly observed in Eastland. The annual parade and dedication ceremonies at the soldier's memorial fountain on the courthouse lawn, were held. Most of the Businesses in town were closed for the day.

ON THE HILL

By Jan Spalding Even though our holiday from school was very short, we had a hard time getting back into the swing of things. Everyone had a very nice time and many students had nice trips. Teacher Johnson went to Ft. Worth and met her niece, Christopher Clarke from Houston. She was accompanied by another niece, Susan Taylor Webb. Susan has spent the past week with "Teach". From Ft. Worth they went to Gladewater, Susan's home. Christopher and Miss Johnson returned to Eastland Monday morning.

Mrs. Hardeman, Prudie, and Bill went to Dallas, where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Hardeman's oldest son, Hargus. He married Miss Naomi Armstrong at her home, 7:30 Saturday evening.

Miss Morris was in Carbon over the week-end. She had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. Rufus E. Price from La Marque, Miss Opal Morris from Rock Springs, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Hallenbeck, and Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Hallenbeck, all of Eastland.

Miss Morehart accompanied Miss Drago to Ft. Worth and Dallas. While in Dallas they attended a concert at MacFarland Auditorium, given by Maryla Jonas, the eminent Polish pianist. Miss Morehart said that Miss Jonas was a wonderful musician.

Dick Davis, Jack Turner and Mrs. John Tucker accompanied Mrs. H. H. Durham to Denton to take Donald Kinnaird and Norman Durham back to school. While there Dick and Jack made reservations for the fall term. They stopped in Ft. Worth on the way back. LaVerne Cornelius and Jerry Spence went to Austin to visit La Verne's sister, Catherine, who attends the University.

John Jackson was home from school for the week-end and everyone from EHS was very glad to see him.

The school is proud of their victory over Hico and hope to beat Hamilton just about as bad. Many students are planning on going to the game.

The CO-ED Club had a Scavenger Hunt last Saturday night. They met at the park and after a two hour hunt, they returned to the park when they had a Weiner roast.

Many EHS students as well as all the football boys attended the Cisco-Ranger game Armistice Day. Naomi Wood visited in Cisco and attended the ACC-Howard-Payne game in Abilene, Saturday.

Well, that's about all the news from EHS this week. See you next week.

LOCAL SPORTS

Coach Little of the Mavericks announces that his B team will meet the Olden Hornets in a game at Maverick Field here Saturday night at 7:30.

The Eastland Mavericks go to Hamilton tonight where they play Hamilton at 7:30 this evening. A large number of fans are expected to make the trip with them.

The Mavericks have played 4 conference games and stand second in the league. The game with Hamilton tonight and the game with Gorman will conclude the series of conference games.

The district committee, composed of superintendents of the schools in the district, ruled against Eastland in her contest of a player on the DeLeon team. The committee, meeting in DeLeon Tuesday, made its ruling. Eastland had contested the eligibility of a player on a matter of transfer.

H. C. Elliott, principal and a nd coach at Eastland Junior High, announces that his team met the Junior High team of Breckenridge in a game there Thursday night of last week which resulted in a score of 7 to 0 in favor of the Eastland team. He also stated his team is to play Cisco Junior High team here on November 20.

Coach Elliott stated that his Junior High team is not fully equipped, but have only such equipment as the coach of the Mavericks have been able to let them have. He urges Eastland fans to turn out for the game with Cisco here on the 20th. The admission will be only 15c and 25c and the entire proceeds will go to the local team for equipment. The proceeds from the game at Cisco will go to the Cisco team.

Local Church To Install Board Members Sunday

The Official Board (The Board of Stewards) of the Eastland Methodist church will be installed at the close of the Sunday morning worship service. These stewards, chosen by the church to be leaders for the ensuing year, will assume publicly the vows of faithfulness to the high and honored office to which they have been chosen. The installation of the Official Board is a sacred and important occasion.

The congregation will also make a vow to be faithful to the leadership of the stewards.

The pastor, Rev. E. R. Gordon, will bring the Installation sermon on the topic "A Triumphant Church." Special music is being prepared and the entire service is carefully planned that the greatest possible good will be accomplished. The service begins at 11:00 o'clock.

The evening service begins at 7:30 o'clock and will feature congregational singing. The pastor will bring the sermon using the theme, "Co-operation" for the basis of his address.

Friends of the Eastland Methodist church are always invited to visit and worship with the Christians called Methodists in Eastland.

Growth And Care Of The Abelia

The abelia is one of the shrubs selected by the Eastland County Highway Beautification Committee of which Mrs. James Horton is county chairman and Mrs. Jack Frost is chairman for Eastland, to be planted on the highways. It is a very hardy semi-evergreen and has a profusion of bell shaped late summer flowers varying in color from white to light pink. It will grow in most any soil, but does best in fairly rich soil. It will grow in either sun or shade.

Safest plantings are made from balled and burlaped stock, which is more expensive than the so-called bare root stock. In this locality however, very good results are had if the more reasonably priced bare root stock is planted after there has been a good hard freeze to drive the sap down. Bare rooted plants should be freshly dug, and, if shipped, should be wrapped in peat moss and moist excelsior. Plants should be soaked in water for several hours before planting, and after planting should have the tops cut back severely. It is not unusual for both balled and bare-root stock to lose leaves after transplanting.

Abelias may be planted throughout the dormant season—that is, from the time of the first hard freeze until the time when the spring growing season begins in March.

GO TO RANGER

Local Royal Neighbors are scheduled to go to Ranger Monday night, November 18, when a number of candidates will be initiated. All members of the order are requested to take sandwiches and dress in formal attire.

SAYS DEMANDS ON 50TH LEGISLATURE BE GREAT

By virtue of the fact that the financial demands upon the 50th Legislature which convenes in January, will be the greatest in the history of the state, this legislature may become the most expensive in state history, L. R. Pearson of Ranger, present representative and representative-elect of the 107th District composed of Eastland and Callahan counties, told members of the Eastland Lions Club in a talk before that organization Tuesday at noon.

The legislature is about as unpredictable as Texas weather, but with the numerous measures that it now appears will be presented for consideration, the most of which will call for large appropriations, it appears that the 50th will be a spender, Pearson said.

Pearson listed as among those measures that possibly will come up for passage, or at least for consideration, and which will call for big appropriations, if passed: Aid for school teachers, increased aid for old folks, State buildings, farm-to-market roads, health program, pensions for state appointed employes (which was authorized by the constitutional amendment just voted) and a proposed constitutional amendment for a bond issue to provide $250,000,000 to $300,000,000 for World

CONCERT ARTIST

Above is Carroll Glenn, violinist, who is the artist in the first of a series of four Community Concerts being sponsored by citizen groups in Eastland, Ranger and Cisco and of which Mrs. Clyde Grissom of Eastland is chairman.

Miss Glenn's appearance is scheduled for Wednesday night, November 27, at 8:15 at the Eastland High School Auditorium.

Membership cards have been mailed to members and these may be used as admission tickets to the performances. Each of the four performances will be held in Eastland.

Line-Up For The Cisco-Eastland Junior Hi Game

Gamble Tells Of Lone Star Gas Co's Operations

Sam Gamble, production superintendent for this district for the Lone Star Gas Company, was on the program for the Eastland Rotary club at its Monday noon meeting. He gave a fairly detailed account of the Lone Star's operations in this area since its entry in the field in 1922. Beginning in Eastland county the Lone Star, Gamble said gradually extended its activities into Stephens and other counties adjoining Eastland.

In 1927 the Lone Star took over by purchase the Texas Company's gas properties in this section and in 1932 bought the Chesnut & Smith plants, Gamble said. He said that the amount of gas production in this territory had declined very materially and made the prediction that within the next five or six years there would not be enough gas produced in the County to operate on unless additional production is discovered. He stated, however, that a number of wells, some of them good producers, had recently been brought in in the northwest portion of the County. No gas is now being piped east from this section, he said.

The safety program, which the Lone Star has been conducting for the past several years, has really produced good results, Gamble said.

Rotarian Jim Horton Announced To The Club That Bill Collins Has Agreed To Act As Scoutmaster For Boy Scout Troop No. 6, Which Had Been Sponsored By The Rotary Club.

Visitors at Monday's meeting were Rotarian D. Joseph of Ranger and Fred Maxey of Eastland.

Eastland Rites For Mrs. Houston Saturday, Last

Funeral services were conducted at the Eastland Church of Christ Saturday at 2:00 p.m. for Mrs. Ora Houston, wife of E. D. Houston, who died in the Eastland hospital Thursday night, Nov. 7. Rev. Westbrook, minister of the Church of Christ of Cisco, officiated at the service.

Survivors are the husband, E. D. Houston; daughters, Mrs. W. L. Fetty, Mrs. C. B. Welborn, Mrs. L. H. Choate, Mrs. H. C. Hefflin, Mrs. J. M. Coppen; sons, Burl Houston and Ed Houston. All of the family were present at the time of her passing. Brothers are Sim Dabbs, Eastland; Charlie Dabbs, Eastland; and Bob Dabbs, of West Texas. A sister, Mrs. Mary Cunningham of Davis, Okla.

Mrs. Houston was a member of the Church of Christ and had lived in or near Eastland most of her life. She was born at Lampasas in January, 1878, and married E. D. Houston 48 years ago this coming December.

Interment was in the Eastland cemetery with Hamner's in charge.

County Has 13 Girl's 4-H Clubs

Thirteen girls 4-H Clubs have been organized in Eastland County with 272 members. They are Gorman, Olden High, Olden Grade Ranger Hodges Oak, Ranger Young, Scanton, Desdemona Grade, Desdemona High, Carbon Grade, Carbon High, Morton Valley, Pioneer, and Rising Star. 4-H Club girls selected Food Preparation and Clothing as the two demonstrations for the year. Each club plans to have two meetings a month. The Home Demonstration agent meets with the club once a month, and the sponsors once a month.

In planning programs for the year, girls make plans to work on a point basis. Club members will score each goal completed and points will be given. Demonstrations on stenciling with textile paints and making aprons are being given this month.

Assistant County Agent Resigns

It was announced today that N. R. Watkins, for the past two and a half months assistant county agent for Eastland county, has resigned that position effective at once.

Watkins resigned the county position to accept a position with the Veterans Administration at Paris, Texas.

EASTLAND CIVIC LEAGUE AND GARDEN CLUB'S ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW HELD WEDNESDAY, NOV. 13

Morton Valley Girl Winner In State Contest

Dolores Fay Williamson of the Morton Valley 4-H Club is winner of a $50 War Bond as state winner in the individual dairy foods contest, 1945-46 was the first year that Texas 4-H Club girls entered the National 4-H Club contest. She has been a member of the 4-H club for 5 years.

As dairy demonstrator for her club she made milk drinks, followed correct practices in care of milk utensils, and prepared milk and cheese dishes during the year. She gave a demonstration on care of milk utensils to fellow members of the Morton Valley 4-H Club.

Dolores gave the dairy foods demonstration at 4-H Rally Day. She conducted the demonstration as a snack bar. She exhibited a tray of party pick-ups made with cheese. These consisted of rainbow and other small sandwiches, potato chips spread with cream cheese, and prunes stuffed with cheese and gave directions for making. Last she mixed two milk drinks—a grape blossom and an apricot cooler made with ice cream. She then invited some club members to come by the bar and have a snack.

District Manager For Telephone Company Named

R. J. Flechtner, manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., for downtown Fort Worth since 1937 has been named Telephone district manager for Fort Worth Suburban area, E. J. Ernest, division commercial superintendent of the company announced today.

E. Hooks, Telephone manager for Ranger and seven other exchanges in this vicinity, will continue as manager here. Flechtner will replace N. H. Moore, district manager of Fort Worth suburban district for the past eleven years, who has been on leave of absence for sometime due to ill health.

Flechtner has had eighteen years of telephone experience which began in the company's commercial department in Fort Worth in 1928. He later served at Wichita Falls as cashier and manager, and at Fort Worth as business office manager. In 1935 he went to the Dallas office as commercial sales supervisor, and in 1937 was promoted to telephone manager of downtown Fort Worth, his position until the present appointment.

County Court Jury Acquits Burkett In Assault Case

A jury in Judge P. L. Crossley's County court Wednesday acquitted Omar Burkett, charged with assault. The case grew out of a fight between Burkett's son, Robert and Quincy Lee, on Election night, August 24. The jury was out only a few minutes before bringing in the verdict of "not guilty."

A case against Robert Burkett, which grew out the same fight, is scheduled for trial on December 16th.

Now Is Time To Plant Winter Cover Crops

Now is the time to sow winter cover crops for 1947. Under the AAA regulations, approval of the county committee must be obtained before any practices are carried out under the 1946 or 1947 program. This is necessary because the money must be set aside to aid in paying for the practices.

Although many producers have secured the approval, we feel sure that there are many more who plan to carry out this practice and have no approval. If you plan to sow a winter legume cover crop and have not secured an approval—be sure to contact the county AAA Office so that funds can be set aside to pay for the practice.

Greenland, the world's largest island, is three times as big as Texas.

Flower arrangements, the most beautiful and unusual arrangements, were the comments made by the majority of the people viewing the annual flower show Wednesday from 6:30 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. at the Woman's Club House, sponsored by the Civic League and Garden Club.

The committee arranging the flower show were Mrs. Jack Ammer, Mrs. James Horton, Mrs. Jack Frost, Mrs. W. P. Leslie, Mrs. T. E. Payne, Mrs. Guy Quinn, Mrs. Frank Day, Mrs. D. L. Childress, Mrs. W. C. Vickers, Mrs. F. W. Graham, Mrs. George Hipp, Mrs. Frank Day, Mrs. A. E. Wittrup, Mrs. D. L. Houle, and Mrs. Frank A. Jones.

Others in the house party were Mrs. Theo Lamb, Mrs. Frank Hightower, Mrs. Jack Carothers, Mrs. Robert Vaughn, and Mrs. Frank Castleberry president of the club.

Mrs. Horton at the door greeted the guests, Mrs. F. W. Graham received at the library door, and Mrs. Frank Day presided at the register. Mrs. Ammer and Mrs. Castleberry at the lace laid table poured coffee from silver services, fancy cookies were served from the table.

Mrs. Maifred Hale Cullen read a poem, "To a Florist Artist," which she dedicated to the garden club. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. F. Taylor.

Mrs. Taylor's pupils played piano music during the calling hours. Miss Dorothy Sims sang four numbers, those playing were Miss Marleece Elliott, Miss Billie Floyd Hunt, and Miss Veda Sneed.

The Hortons ceramics had an attractive display, arranged by Mrs. James Horton, and an attractive arrangement of flowers. A table arrangement of articles from India were displayed by Mrs. Horton. Mrs. Hubert Toombs and Mrs. T. E. Richardson had an attractive Christmas arrangement with roses and white mums.

Mrs. Ammer had a number of very attractive arrangements. The Poe florist and Wittrup's flowers, had beautiful displays, an unusual display of herbs based on the tree of life, and arranged by Mrs. Marene Johnson, was furnished by Eastland Drug. Mrs. D. L. Houle had a lovely arrangement made by Ross Hancock, A Pilgrim, Thanksgiving table arrangement was by Mrs. F. W. Graham, Mrs. Frank A. Jones Mrs. Ammer. The whatnot shelves were decorated in pairs. Hand painted bottles holding ivy, and antique hurricane lamps holding Christmas decorations, were arranged by Mrs. Frank Jones and Mrs. F. W. Graham. Mrs. J. P. Kilgore had several attractive arrangements. Mrs. F. M. Kenny had a cactus arrangement.

An attractive black and gold table arrangement was on display by the Zeta Phi Chapter, arranged by Mrs. Johnson. Many other beautiful arrangements were displayed. A large number of men and women attended the show during the evening.

AMERICAN LEGION

BOB BURKETT, Post Commander
Mrs. Earl Francis, Auxiliary Pres.

Faude Hook writing in the October issue of the American Legion magazine offers some real logical advice to the veteran who must build a house in order to have a place in which to live. If you contemplate building a home under your GI bill of rights, reading this article will pay dividends in a big way.

If you dropped your wartime National Service Life Insurance since being discharged you may restate your policy by paying 2 monthly premiums and furnishing satisfactory health evidence. By January 1, 1947, this is good insurance and cheap to you because of your service in the armed forces, give it a lot of serious thought before the deadline date. Our local Veterans office can furnish you with Form 353a for reinstatement or advise you on any insurance problem you may have.

A general, returning to camp one evening, couldn't produce his identification. The rookie or guard duty, unimpressed, refused to let him pass through the gates. Finally, the exasperated general bent forward pointed to the stars on his shoulder, and bellowed: "Do you know what these mean?" "Sir," popped the rookie, "you got two sons in the service."

Life is made up, not of great sacrifices or duties, but of little things, in which smiles and kindness, and small obligations given habitually, are what preserve the heart and secure comfort.

John Jackson, chemical engineering student at Texas Tech College, Lubbock, surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson, with an unannounced week-end visit.

A good number of Legionnaires journeyed to Mineral Wells to attend the Armistice Day American members of our local unit sold 3 hundred poppies which speaks for itself. Mrs. W. E. Lowry had charge of the sale of poppies at Olden and reported the sale of one hundred poppies, which is exceptional well considering many Oldenites may have purchased poppies in Eastland and Ranger. Mrs. Burkett asked that this column in behalf of the Auxiliary to sincerely thank the Girl Scout leaders, Mrs. Whaley and Mrs. Throne the Girl Scouts, The Burr Store for the window display space, the Lucas Store for the use of their store front for headquarters and her Gorman and Olden committees.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Douglas of Borger, are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Howell. Mr. Douglas returned to Borger last Monday where he is engaged in the bakery business. Mrs. Douglas will extend her visit another week.

D. R. (Pee Wee) Gilbreath is a patient at the Veterans Hospital at Temple. He has spent three months in the hospital, previously he was hospitalized last May. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gilbreath, parents of buddy Gilbreath, left last Sunday for Temple for a visit with their son. "Pee Wee" was a member of the Signal Corps during the late war.

Mrs. Kelly Farrar, immediate past state auxiliary president and present National Executive Committeewoman, of Breckenridge, has been appointed as National membership chairman for the Southern division. Mrs. M. H. Ehler, of Brenham and Mrs. Rita Breaux of Beaumont were also appointed to National committee chairmanships.

Mrs. Geo. I. Lane, past president of the auxiliary has completed the first knitted sweater to be sent to the Kerrville hospital for our tubercular veteran patients. There are 350 patients in this hospital and state wide auxiliary units have been requested to furnish a sweater for each patient.

Quality isn't something that can be argued into an article or promised into it. It must be put there. If it isn't put there, the finest sales talk in the world won't act as a substitute.

Three new members, Mrs. Lor-ine Vaughn, Mrs. Ruth Branton and Mrs. Frank Stephenson took the obligation of the auxiliary at their regular meeting last Tuesday evening. $25.00 was voted to be sent to the Treasurer Chest fund of the Veterans Hospital at Waco, each Veterans Hospital has an Auxiliary hospital representative who takes care of the extra needs of our buddies. Mrs. Henry Pullman is arrangement chairman for a "Gift Shop" party to be held in our post quarters next Tuesday evening November 19th at 8:00. It is requested that each guest bring a gift such as: bath towels; kitchen towels; aprons; handkerchiefs; toilet soap; pillow cases; wash cloths; dress material; hose; underwear; pajamas; stationery; sweaters and toys for children these gifts will go to patients in veterans hospital who do not have money to purchase small remembrances to their immediate members of their family. It gives them great happiness and peace of mind to be able to remember their loved ones with personal gifts. Bring a friend with you to the party, many would like to have a chance to do their bit and this is a grand chance to bring a wee bit of cheer to men who are suffering the ravages of war. Bring any gift you think suitable, those mentioned above are only suggestions, all gifts are acceptable.

And here is a tender love story of two porcupines: "I love you, ouch!" "I love you, too, ouch."

"Say, Aunt Melissa, what am a paratrooper?" "Honey a paratrooper is a soldier who climbs down trees he never clumb up."

There was a nice public attendance for the brief Armistice Day ceremonies at the memorial fountain on the court house lawn. This fountain was erected by the Civic League at the close of our first World War as a tribute to our heroic comrades who made the supreme sacrifice from Eastland County. The short parade headed by the police car followed by the Colors and Color guard, in charge of Clarence McCoy, the Firing Squad commanded by Dick Chamberlain, the High School band under the direction of E. J. Pryor, the Girl Scouts with their leaders, Mrs. Throne and Mrs. Whaley. A volley was fired followed by taps. Rev. Weems S. Dykes, pastor of the First Christian Church offered prayer. Two band selections were rendered before the parade reformed and marched back to the city hall for dismissal.

There seems to be some talk in the wind that Gen. Eisenhower will step out as our Chief of Staff of the Army and Gen. Omar Bradley will leave the Vet Administration to succeed Gen. Eisenhower. This change is booked to take place soon after the first of the year and will be welcomed by the Legion as harmony between the Veterans Administrator Bradley and the Legion is at an awful low state of affairs. Our battle against Gen. Bradley is predicted on the theory that by helping the veterans to get a sound footing as a civilian again the country as a whole will profit in numerous channels. The Legion is with the General 100 per cent in his fight against racketeering in the on-the-job training program and the abuses of the unemployment compensation privileges. We are interested in seeing that the veteran gets what the laws entitles him to receive, but above all we are pledged to look after the welfare of the disabled, the widow and orphan of our departed buddies.

We express our heartfelt sympathy to our Unit member Mrs. Maurice Coplen on the great loss of her mother, Mrs. Ed Houston, who passed away last Friday in the Eastland hospital and was buried Saturday afternoon.

Cities To Tackle Labor Problems

CHICAGO (UP) — The Public Administration Clearing House reports municipal labor relations bureaus are being established in New York City and St. Louis, Mo., following creation of similar units in Toledo, O., and Louisville, Ky.

In New York, the division has been put on permanent status with a $60,000 budget and three members. It will assist in handling relations between the city and its 150,000 employes as well as act in disputes in key industries affecting public health and welfare.

In St. Louis an 18-member industrial relations committee has been designated. Louisville formed an 18-member labor mediation board a few months ago. Toledo also has 18 members on its board.

Hitler's Luxury Yacht to Become Pleasure Ship

LONDON (UP) — Hitler's 3,600-ton luxury yacht, the Grille, presented to him as a gift of the German nation, has been purchased by entertainment magnate Henry Buxton for $304,000 and will be transformed into a pleasure ship for holiday-making Britons. Buxton bought the vessel from the British government. He said he expects to spend another $140,000 outfitting and altering the yacht. He plans to install a cinema seating 500 and fit the ship for television. A dance floor and restaurant also will be included.

The Grille was captured by royal marines at Trondheim in May, 1945.

Vast Library Available For Journalism Course

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP) — University of Texas journalism students have at their disposal a new library containing 1,200 books selected from the main library and copies of more than 80 state, out-of-state and foreign newspapers.

Included among the newspapers are 35 Texas dailies, 25 Texas weekly papers, 12 out-of-state dailies, 10 out of state weeklies and several foreign newspapers. Weeklies and small dailies are used in the course. "The Small City Newspaper," taught by Prof. Olin E. Hinkle.

Charles C. Sansom is in charge of the new journalism library.

Nebraska reported a record state income in 1945 of $1,347,000,000.

Nebraska Hits Banking High

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP)—Deposits in Nebraska's 282 state banks gained $42,775,653 during the year, to reach an all-time record of $383,868,699 by Sept. 30.

Nationally, state bank deposits dropped four per cent during the first six months of the year. Nebraska, however, enriched by a bumper wheat crop and reflecting the profit of enormous livestock sales during the OPA holiday last summer, gained $11,862,653 in the first half of the year, and $30,913,000 during the third quarter.

"I like to credit the average Nebraskan who conserves his money and is not spending it recklessly at the present high prices," J. F. Peters, banking director, said.

"But I hope farmers soon will be able to buy the machinery and repairs they need—money spent for such things is well invested."

Rural mail carriers travelled an estimated 1,435,049 miles every day last year to serve the 29,500,000 persons on their routes, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica 1946 Book of the Year.

Commercial baking did not become a big industry until the early 1900's.

WARRIOR SILVER EMERGES AGAIN AS NEW COINS

DENVER (UP)—An increasing number of shiny new dimes are due in American pockets shortly. They will be the U. S. Treasury's honorably discharged veterans—coined from silver that went to war.

Early this fall, huge quantities of silver were shipped under guard to the government's fortress-like mint in Denver. The metal had completed its strategic part in winning the war.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation has disclosed how silver came to the rescue when America's production of war goods was threatened by shortages of more common metals.

In 1942, the supply of copper was too low to meet the demands of mushrooming war plants across the country. Copper and other metals which conduct electricity were needed in machinery producing bombs, bullets, planes and tanks.

The RFC, whose subsidiary, the Defense Plant Corp., operated myriads of factories, called on the secretary of the treasury. An agreement was reached whereby America's stores of silver, not needed for money, were turned over to war plants.

All in all, 16,272 tons of silver emerged from federal storage places to enter the war effort. The bars were remelted and fabricated into wire for electrical transformers and into bus bars to carry heavy current.

Its service ended, the silver is returning to civilian life. Seventy thousand tons were taken to the Denver mint. The remainder went to the mint at Philadelphia and the Bureau of Mines assay office at New York.

Special precautions were taken in transferring the silver from scattered plants to the three depots. A mint official pointed out, however, that the bars of metal would be worthless to an individual because of the difficulty in disposing of it.

Moses Smith, superintendent of the Denver mint, said the metal was to be remelted as quickly as possible and cast into ingots sized for coinage into dimes, quarters and half-dollars.

The history of Cannes, second largest city on the French Riviera can be traced as far back as 400 B.C., when it was known as Aigthon, the capital of the Oxhians.

Texas Hunters Fill Pockets of Land Owners

COLLEGE STATION, (UP)—Texas is really going hunting this fall, and that can mean money in the landowners' jeans.

Last year, approximately $875,000 was received by farmers and ranchmen of Texas for hunting and fishing leases, reports R. E. Callendar, wildlife conservation specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. During 1945, the largest number of hunters in the history of the state went afield, and Callendar says there is an anticipated 25 per cent increase this fall in the number of sportsmen who will shoulder their shotguns and make for the great outdoors.

With dove season already open by zones, and deer, turkey and quail season just around the corner, there are good prospects for hunting this season. Early fall rains over the state have improved the range and there is a fair to abundant crop of game in sight, Callendar says.

Most landowners lease deer and turkey hunting privileges by the season rather than by the day. This practice, says Callendar commands a greater respect and better cooperation on the part of the hunters in taking care of the game supply. Most of the hunters who leased shooting privileges last year kept their leases for this season.

More than $3,250,000 worth of Australian wool changed hands during the September auction sale.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Reports From Vets On-The-Job Training Due

About one-half of the non-disabled veterans in the County of Eastland receiving subsistence for job training or attending school had filed a report of their quarterly earnings on the November 5 deadline, James M. Brown of the Eastland Contact Office announced today. Disabled veterans do not have to make this accounting.

Brown was informed by the Dallas Regional Office of the VA that unless these veterans make the required statements on printed forms which have been sent them with monthly checks since Sept. 1, they will be cut off the subsistence rolls.

Some veterans complained to the VA they either did not receive the blue printed slips with their checks, or had mislaid them. Brown said that the contact offices had been furnished with a supply of these report forms and that any veteran who desired one could obtain it at the Eastland County Office or from Mr. A. D. Modiset, local Contact Representative who performs Itinerant Service to Ranger each Saturday morning from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon in the Postoffice.

The reports of earnings are required of non-disabled veterans in keeping with the law which does not allow a single veteran earning $175 or more each month, or a veteran with dependents whose income is $200 or more, any further subsistence from the government.

Between now and November 12 the registration and research section of the VA Regional office in Dallas will check earnings reports against a master list of veterans who have been receiving checks. Payments will be suspended if the veteran has not reported on his income and the ex-servicemen will be notified by letter. He will receive no further government checks until his report can be received and audited for re-adjustment of payments.

"The sooner the veteran makes his report, the sooner he will get back on the subsistence list," the VA Contact Representative said.

Man Born In Cemetery Writes Funeral Book

PITTSBURGH (UP) — Fred C. Hopton, Jr., who was born in a cemetery, has completed what he calls the first book by an American author on funeral ethics.

Hopton, an Army veteran, said he wrote "The Ethical Funeral" because there was no suitable text for his students at the Pittsburgh School of Embalming.

His book is dedicated to his father, Fred C. Hopton, Sr., manager of the Allegheny Cemetery.

A Flaw in the Title-

... may not always be revealed in the abstract. Jim Johnson and his wife owned considerable property when she died, much of which they acquired after making a joint will under which he was sole beneficiary, and as such sold the property forgetting little Jim, born after the date of his mother's will, who owned a half interest. Where the abstract does not reveal every flaw, title insurance closes the gap and gives property owners safe and economical protection against weak and hazardous title chains.

Oil Notes

Ownership of the G. B. Howell, Henry Compton number 1 well, located in Section 8, Orphans Asylum Lands, Stephens County, 5 miles SE of Ibox has been changed to L. C. Harrison. Mr. Harrison has filed application to drill the Henry Compton number 2 with rotary tools within 30 days...

O'Connor Field in Stephens County includes a new 3500' well to be drilled by the Woodley Petroleum Company on the Kimmell-O'Connor "C" lease, this well to be their number 1 well on this lease. This 160 acre lease is located in Section 51, Block 7, T&P survey, and this rotary drilled well is to be 330' from the West line, and 330' from the North line of the lease, and 330' from the West line of Section 51.

Drilling will begin at once on the Roeser & Pendleton, Inc., and J. D. Sanderfer, Jr., C. J. O'Connor number 2. Depth will be approximately 3500', using rotary tools. This well will be 330' from the North line, and 330' from the West line of the SE 1/4 of Section 52, Block 7, T&P Survey, Stephens County.

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company have requested a special hearing on the location of the J. E. Douglass well number 2 in the Thos. Watson survey, Brownville Field, 4 1/4 miles SW of Eliasville in Stephens County. This 4500' well is to be drilled to the Mississippi Line and will be 330' from the East line, and 509' from the South line of this survey. It is also 660' South of their well number 1.

J. D. Sancerfo, Jr., et al has changed the name and number of the G. P. Brawner No. 4 to the G. P. Brawner "B" lease well number 1 due to different mineral ownership. This well is in Section 25, Block 2, ET RR Survey, Eastland County, 10 miles NE of Rising Star. The log on record indicated that there were shows of oil at 1985, 1108, 1110, and a slight increase at 1132 1/2. Application to shoot with 103 quarts of glycerin per foot in the sandstone formation from 1080' to 1132.5 (which is total depth) has also been received on this same well.

Total depth of the Woodley Petroleum Company's O'Connor number 1, in Section 53, Block 7, T&P Survey, Stephens County is 3392', and it potentialled 8 barrels in a 24 hour period with a gas-oil ratio of 1000 cubic feet per barrel of oil with a gravity of 39.6.

Wells plugged in Stephens County include the following: Texas Pacific Coal and Oil Company's Homer Lee, drilled in 1924 to a depth of 3288' in Block 5, Section 18 of the T&P survey was plugged on October 25, 1946.

Plugging of the Phillips Petroleum Company's Northwild number 1, located in Section 59, BAL Survey, Stephens County was completed October 31, 1946. Total depth of this oil well was 4607'.

L. R. Pearson of Ranger has completed the plugging of two of his wells—the H. D. Thomason in the S. H. Key Survey, Eastland County, near Carbon, and the A. S. Jackson well number 3 located in the Grigsby Survey, 4 miles South of Carbon. These wells were drilled in 1940 and 1941.

Plugging of a well drilled 6 miles west of Ranger in 1919 and 1920 has been completed. This is the G. M. Harris Brooks Heirs No. A-1 located in Blk. 4, Sec. 4, HT & C RR Survey, Eastland County. Total depth of this Boomtime well was 3535' and it has produced both gas and oil.

The G. M. Harris Brooks Heirs No. 1, located in the above mentioned block, survey, and section was also plugged. The depth of this well was 3500', and had produced from the Ranger sand.

The Choate & Davies R. Work well number 1, in Section 476, SP RR Survey, Eastland County, 7 miles NW of Cisco has been plugged and abandoned. This well was drilled in April and May of this year to a depth of 4070 and completed as a dry hole. This well was originally drilled in 1930, and was deepened in the spring from 3903 to 4070.

Another dry hole which has recently been plugged is the L. D. Cain et al, D. S. Ray well number 2, in Sec. 5, Survey LCSL, Comanche County, 8 miles SE of Rising Star. Total depth of this well was 600'.

A hearing was to be held on November 9 to consider the application of the Phillips Petroleum Company to use its Southland well number 1, located in Section 57,

Under The Dome At Austin

By Henry A. Zimmerman and Gordon K. Shearer United Press Staff Correspondents

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP)—Colorful ceremonies will mark the return of colors and standards of units of the Texas National Guard on Armistice Day.

Approximately 55 colors, standards and miscellaneous flags together with 107 unit guidons will be returned that afternoon at Camp Mabry here to those units which were inducted into the regular Army in Nov. 1940.

The program will begin at 2:30 o'clock with a 19-gun salute to Gov. Coke R. Stevenson who, as commander-in-chief of the guard units, will receive the colors from Maj. Gen. John B. Coulter, deputy commander of the 4th Army, representing the War Department.

Much has been said about the part Texans played in winning the war, and War Department records of National Guard units show that Texans and their units did much to distinguish themselves.

Among National Guard awards of the Congressional Medal of Honor, 16 were Texans, with seven going to the infantry, five to air force, two to cavalry and one each to the engineers and tank battalions.

Texas ranged first in awards for heroism in air battles, 12 Texans receiving the Distinguished Flying Cross, three the Distinguished Service Cross and four the Silver Star.

Fifteen Texans of the Fourth Marines were cited for decorations, and commendations for heroism in the Philippines.

Casualties in the 36th infantry division were the third largest of any American division, 27,343, of whom 3,974 were killed, 19,052 were wounded, and 4,317 were missing in action.

Texas cities and counties may be working too rapidly on their hospital plans for their own financial good.

The situation developed this week when a report was made to BAL Survey, East Ibox Area, Stephens County, for the purpose of injecting salt water produced on offset leases to this well into the Ellenberger formation underlying the East Ibox Area of Stephens County.

the state board of health on progress of the state hospital facility survey. The federal government under its hospital plan is not going to let a community have credit on money expended on a partly-completed hospital project in the matching program for hospital building.

If a started project is included in the federal program, the matching will be based on the part of the work remaining to be finished when the project gets its federal approval.

So the community that delays starting a building until the plan is completely worked out will be able to get more federal aid than the community that started out without waiting for federal aid.

The hospital program, in other words, reverses the old saying that the Lord helps those that help themselves.

However, there is no need to slow down on preparations. Being ready with plans when the time comes will be very important.

The Texas hospital survey probably will be completed about April 1.

To date the survey has been completed in 54 counties. All required data has been completed on about 316 hospitals. It has been found that 53 counties in the state are completely lacking in hospital facilities.

Early work of the survey has also brought out a problem for which the answer probably will have to be worked out by state agreements. That problem is one of supplying needed facilities along state borders.

In many places, the highway, rail and other connections make a hospital location in an adjoining state better for border a county than a hospital within the state. The federal set-up, however, calls for participation by states.

Also before Texas will be in a position to join in the federal program it will be necessary to set up a state system of licensing hospitals, and to create an official state hospital agency.

Texas Hospital Association is said to have already prepared bills to submit to the state legislature on the topic.

Ed Riedel, business officer of the State Health Department, has compiled some statistics on the operation of the state rapid treatment centers that have been established as part of the campaign to wipe out venereal diseases.

The report shows 18,619 patients treated between July 1, 1945, and June 30, 1946. Most heavily patronized was the one at Waco which had 5,732 of the total number of patients. Least number was 483 at Mineral Wells. El Paso had 3,287, San Antonio, 5,647, Rocky Mount, 2,446 and Corpus Christi, 1,024.

Average cost per patient was $32.27, and the total patient days spent in the centers were 129,548. Cost per patient day was $4.63.

Progress on getting telephones to those waiting

Every day we're making progress on the big telephone job to bring service to the people who want it. New applicants keep the waiting list long, but as new equipment is placed in operation, we're able to put in telephones for those who have waited longest.

It's not a short or easy job, but we're hard at it. We are working at getting telephones for not a few persons or a few towns, but... for more than 230,000 persons... living in some 700 towns... in five states.

"Getting telephones" means making and shipping and installing switchboards and other telephone equipment, stringing wire and splicing cable, setting poles and placing conduit, and all the rest that adds up to a telephone system.

All over the United States people are waiting for telephones. Thus we get only our fair share of the new telephone equipment being made for the 48 states.

The raw materials the factories work with—copper, lead, rubber, cotton—are just as scarce as many of the hard-to-get things you yourself need these days. That's why getting telephones in takes longer today than we like.

That isn't normal, and it won't last. One of these days we'll be putting in telephones again the day people want them installed. Everyone who wants a telephone will have one, and service will be better than ever.

Meanwhile, the best way we know to hurry that day along is to work hard—harder than we once believed we could work—and make that badly needed telephone equipment faster than it has ever been made before. As you read this, 100,000 workers in telephone factories—an all-time high—are doing that. They are making telephone equipment in far greater volume than ever before. That's the best answer to a shortage that we know.

Firing Squads From Government Offices

The following resolution was adopted at the last National Encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars: "Be it Resolved that our National Officers use their best efforts to obtain legislation that will excuse, with pay, a sufficient number of veterans from government jobs to give military honors to any deceased veteran returned home from abroad for burial in instances where service men cannot be secured."

Quite often when veterans are asked to serve in firing squads for funeral services for veterans they enter the excuse that their employers cannot spare them from their jobs. That our heroic dead should be buried with proper military honors should be the first consideration of all employers and they should so inform their veteran employees.

Vets Want to Buy Land

AUSTIN, Nov. 9 — Bascom Giles, commissioner of the General Land Office, said Saturday his office is being flooded with a fresh avalanche of letters from veterans asking details of land purchase under the constitutional amendment adopted at the polls Thursday.

The following is an editorial from the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram: "Recurring, increasingly greater wars are raising the total of war veterans in the United States to the point where official estimates are that the number of former service men will aggregate 20,000,000 by the formal end of World War II."

The import of that figure may be gauged by pointing out that one out of every seven persons in the United States will be a war veteran, one out of every four eligible voters will be a veteran and one of every three workers will be a veteran. There are already 17,000,000 former service men in this country, and another 3,000,000 will have been demobilized after the formal termination of the war.

Experience has shown that the men who wore the uniform do not align themselves in a solid voting bloc that could hold the balance of voting power. The veterans of World War II probably will be no exception. But as individuals, 20,000,000 veterans can be a powerful force in politics for good or evil. There is no other minority numerically as large."

The V.F.W. meeting which was scheduled to be held Thursday, November 14th was postponed, due to the big exes' football game with Gorman. We are having this meeting Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the V.F.W. Hall. There is important business to be transacted at this time—preparation for the annual roll call and the big feed that is to accompany it is to be scheduled and a date set for it. So everyone is urged to be present.

VETERANS RAISE COLLEGE RANKS TO NEW PEAK

CINCINNATI (UP)—Approximately 800,000 veterans of World War II are studying in colleges and technical schools in the United States, it is shown in a survey made by Dr. Raymond Walters, president of the University of Cincinnati.

The veteran tide has swelled total enrollments to an all-time peak of about 2,000,000 in institutions of higher learning. Veterans get tuition fee and cost-of-living subsidies which are paid by the federal government.

The figures tally closely with those obtained by the United Press in a recent independent survey.

The rise in attendance over the last peace time autumn of 1939 was shown in reports received by Dr. Walters from more than 450 typical institutions in all sections of the country.

The percentage estimates, submitted in advance by Dr. Walters' November numerical tabulation for the educational journal, School and Society, show that institutions from the smallest church colleges to the huge state and urban universities are crowded literally to the walls of their classrooms, laboratories and dormitories, and have brought into service all sorts of barracks, portable houses, local church and school buildings.

By co-operative action within states, the universities and colleges are accommodating in some fashion the tremendous influx of veterans, although the housing problem is acute.

Among universities under private control, the following are typical:

Grand total enrollments—Columbia University, 28,000 students, up 90 per cent in men over 1939 and 20 per cent in women; Fordham, 8,000, up 33 per cent; Temple, 13,500, up 10 per cent in men and 43 per cent in women.

Full-time students only—Harvard, about 11,700, up about 40 per cent; Princeton, 3,455, up 60 per cent; Cornell, 9,800, up 52 per cent; New York University, 19,000, up 50 per cent in men and 5 per cent in women; University of Pennsylvania, 9,388, up 28 per cent in men and 63 per cent in women; Chicago, 7,800, up 40 per cent in men and 15 per cent in women; Northwestern, 9,950, up 66 per cent; Catholic University, 3,300, up 25 per cent in men and 5 per cent in women; Duke, 5,272, up 25 per cent in men and 10 per cent in women.

Vanderbilt, 3,000, up 78 per cent in men and 48 per cent in women; Marquette, 6,574, up 95 per cent in men and 90 per cent in women; Rice Institute, 1,483, up 17 per cent in men; Richmond, 1,680, up 62 per cent in men and 20 per cent in women.

Among universities under public control, Dr. Walters cited the following full-time enrollments: California 40,039, up 35 per cent over 1939, including 21,321 at Berkeley, 13,721 at Los Angeles, 1,175 at San Francisco, 2,282 at Santa Barbara, and 1,540 at other points; Minnesota, 25,847, up 90 per cent in men and 30 per cent in women; Ohio State 24,000, up 84 per cent; Wisconsin, 18,672, up 74 per cent in men and 47 per cent in women.

Texas, 17,168, up 80 per cent in men and 38 per cent in women; State University of Iowa, 9,760, up 61 per cent in men and 13 per cent in women; Kansas, 8,900, up 120 per cent in men and 45 per cent in women; Kentucky, 6,500, up 92 per cent in men and 25 per cent in women; Michigan, 11,098 veterans (no total reported); Rutgers, 8,000, up 81 per cent in men and 15 per cent in women.

Alabama, 8,500, up 75 per cent in men and 90 per cent in women; Utah, 8,500, up 119 per cent in men and 48 per cent in women; Florida, 6,300, up 90 per cent in men; Michigan State College, 13,000, up 110 per cent in men and 50 per cent in women; North Dakota, 2,500, up 60 per cent in men and 39 per cent in women.

At the University of Virginia the undergraduate enrollment is 40 per cent higher than in 1939. The University of Akron reports 3,203 students, up 145 per cent in men and 21 per cent in women; Cincinnati, 7,300, up 44 per cent in men and 32 per cent in women; Toledo, 4,300, up 510 per cent in men.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Williams of Houston spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. C. G. Stubblefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Collins of Eastland were honored with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greer, Tuesday evening. The house was decorated with vari-colored mums. Miss Leatrice Greer presided at the bride's book. Mmes. Bob and D. M. Collins poured coffee and served cookies from the lace covered dining table. Later the dining table was cleared and the honorees displayed the gifts received. Games were enjoyed by the many guests calling during the evening.

Cullas Simms, who was well known here, died at Wink Monday. His remains were returned to Pleasant Hill Tuesday for interment.

NEW YORK (UP)—Highest in current popularity among New Yorkers who like framed pictures of celebrities are Franklin D. Roosevelt, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Olivia de Havilland in the movies and Cardinal Spellman.

So reports the New York Frame and Picture Co., which does a big business in that field in the metropolitan area. In the year ending Oct. 15, the company received 563,214 orders to frame FDR's picture. More than 100,000 wanted Cardinal Spellman.

Of the military heroes, MacArthur led, trailed by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Admiral George Dewey, Teddy Roosevelt in his Rough Rider uniform, and Gen. John J. Pershing.

Most popular movie stars were Olivia de Havilland, Walter Pidgeon and Ingrid Bergman. Seventy-two per cent of the requests for framed pictures on movie stars came from women.

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—A new service to enable the blind to follow and enjoy selected movies has been inaugurated by the Braille Institute of America.

President J. Robert Atkinson has assigned Mrs. Ruby Thurnherr, former movie studio story analyst, to prepare special synopses explaining elements of plot not clear from a movie's dialogue. The motion picture guide for the blind also will describe players, sets and costumes.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 10—Market-wise investors are heavy buyers of U. S. Savings Bonds these days, according to Vernon L. Clark, National Director of savings bond sales for the Treasury Department. Sales of $1000 denomination E bonds in proportion to the total of E bonds sold were 38 per cent in the first half of this year against 28 per cent in the last half of 1945, and the percentage is still rising he states. Moreover, individuals have bought a large portion of the two and a quarter billion dollars worth of G bonds issued so far in 1946. The G bond paying 2 1-2 per cent interest for 12 years, is primarily an investor's bond.

"To those who hold E bonds, the Treasury pays a substantial premium on thrift," Mr. Clark commented. "The E bond is designed to help the average American get ahead, the worker and the farmer to build up a reserve for the future. The Treasury would like to see more of them take a leaf out of the book of the smart investor and buy more of these bonds."

"Held the full ten years to maturity, E bonds return just under 3 per cent a year, compounded semi-annually, or, in simpler terms $4 for each $3 invested. This is so attractive to those who know the investment market that the Treasury will sell E bonds only to individuals, not to banks or corporations, and sets a limit of $3750 worth ($5000 maturity value) on the amount any individual can hold in E bonds originally issued to him or her in any one calendar year. However, each member of a family can hold that amount, either outright or as co-owner or beneficiary, so that a family of five, for example, can own up to $25,000 (maturity value) issued in any one year. There is always a heavy sale of E bonds in January to those who buy as much as they can as early as possible in the new calendar year." As a reminder, Mr. Clark added that there are only six weeks left of this calendar year.

Vice president and sales promotion manager of a Des Moines wood manufacturing firm, Mr. Clark directed the Iowa bond selling organization from '41 through 1945 and was called last January by the Treasury Department to be national director at a dollar-a-year. He visited all 48 states this summer to find out at first hand what the people wanted to know about savings bonds.

"I found that many of the holders of our $30 billion worth of E bonds outstanding do not realize what a gilt-edged investment this bond is," he said. "For example, in the last four years of its ten-year term, a $100 E bond pays $16 on a $75 investment. At straight interest that would equal 5 1-3 per cent a year. It is 4.41 per cent compounded semi-annually but putting it that way makes the return appear smaller to those who are not used to figuring compound interest. Either way you figure it, that's pretty handsome in comparison to what you can get today on any other safe investment. If you cash an E bond that is four years old, you are sacrificing an average of 3-75 per cent, compounded semi-annually for the next six years; if you cash one two years old you sacrifice a 3.38 per cent investment. That is what we mean when we say that it pays to hold onto our E bonds. It also pays in more than dollars, as all thrifty people know.

"The Treasury pays this premium rate to encourage the people to save regularly for their own good and for the good of the national economy," Mr. Clark concluded. "It is not merely selling U. S. securities; it is selling financial SECURITY for the future of the people of the United States."

"For example, in the last four years of its ten-year term, a $100 E bond pays $16 on a $75 investment. At straight interest that would equal 5 1-3 per cent a year. It is 4.41 per cent compounded semi-annually but putting it that way makes the return appear smaller to those who are not used to figuring compound interest. Either way you figure it, that's pretty handsome in comparison to what you can get today on any other safe investment. If you cash an E bond that is four years old, you are sacrificing an average of 3-75 per cent, compounded semi-annually for the next six years; if you cash one two years old you sacrifice a 3.38 per cent investment. That is what we mean when we say that it pays to hold onto our E bonds. It also pays in more than dollars, as all thrifty people know.

"The Treasury pays this premium rate to encourage the people to save regularly for their own good and for the good of the national economy," Mr. Clark concluded. "It is not merely selling U. S. securities; it is selling financial SECURITY for the future of the people of the United States."

Blind To Enjoy Movies By Use Of Guiding Device

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—A new service to enable the blind to follow and enjoy selected movies has been inaugurated by the Braille Institute of America.

President J. Robert Atkinson has assigned Mrs. Ruby Thurnherr, former movie studio story analyst, to prepare special synopses explaining elements of plot not clear from a movie's dialogue. The motion picture guide for the blind also will describe players, sets and costumes.

Certified Check Racket Bilks College Town

GOSHEN, Ind. (UP) — A new version of the college student salesman has appeared in Northern Indiana and Michigan. This one poses as a college student, offers a "certified" check for purchases such as desk and lamps, takes cash for change, then asks for delivery of the purchases to his "non-existent address."

Xmas Tree To Carry Apology For Cutting

More than 10,000 Christmas trees already cut from the Deschutes National Forest for holiday markets are carrying a short note to conservation warriors.

It reads: "This tree brings a Christmas message from the great outdoors. Its cutting was not destructive, but gave needed room for neighboring trees to grow faster and better."

Nimrod Parson Combines Business And Pleasure

BLUFTON, Ind. (UP) — The Rev. E. Maury Ferguson is off on another hunting trip—and he really bags two birds with one stone.

Every year the pastor of the Church of the Nazarene combines his hunting trip with a missionary tour among the northwest Ontario Indians.

He downs moose, deer and other game, and also distributes Gideon testaments and periodicals to the natives. The younger Indians interpret and read the religious material to their elders—many of whom can't read or write.

To his hunting and missionary work he adds a third activity—that of taking moving pictures of Indian life for schools and clubs.

University To Honor News Photographers

KENT, O. (UP) — A hall of fame for news photography honoring the year's most outstanding published news photograph will be established at Kent State University, Dr. George A. Bowman, president of the university announced.

Bowman said a committee chosen and headed by the president of the National Press Photographers Association will select the outstanding picture. The first selection will be for 1946 and the photographer will be honored at the University's 1947 graduation exercises. A special university citation will be conferred on the winning photographer.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How to Handle a Fortune

Some months ago I reported in the Chronicle how Mel Bate's uncle died up north, and left him with a tidy fortune.

Naturally, our town was curious to see how Mel would spend it: Traveling around the world... getting a new house or car... wearing fancy clothes... or dining on cold pheasant and champagne...?

—We can now report, Mel hasn't changed a bit! Drop in on him any night, and you'll find him in his shirt sleeves by the fire, chatting with the Missus, sharing a mellow glass of beer with friends.

From where I sit, Mel has learned the art of handling money—as well as handling people. You don't let cash-in-the-bank push you around any more than you let people push you around. If you like the simple, homey life; companionship and quiet ways; a glass of beer and friendly talk—that's worth a fortune, after all!

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 17.

The Golden Text is: "Thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ" (Galatians 4:7). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God" (Romans 8:16).

The Lesson - Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God and man are not the same, but in the order of divine Science, God and man coexist and are eternal. God is the parent Mind, and man is God's spiritual offspring" (page 336).

Paul Ministers to the Thessalonians

Scripture: Acts 17:1-7; I Thessalonians 1:2-8

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D. THE 17th chapter of Acts tells of Paul's visit to Thessalonica and of the founding of the church there. But the two Epistles that Paul wrote, I and II Thessalonians, are necessary to complete the story.

Taken together, the account in the Acts and the two Epistles throw a great deal of light upon the nature and method of Paul's ministry, as well as upon the conditions under which the churches that Paul began were founded, the character of their membership, and their duration and problems.

Danger and difficulty beset Paul everywhere that he began to preach and teach. Jews were roused to opposition when he taught that Jesus was the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy, and this opposition became persecution. PAUL's enemies tried to get him into trouble with the Roman authorities by accusing him of saying that there was a non-Roman king, one Jesus. These enemies were so successful that Paul and Silas had to escape for the time being, and Jason, their host, had to give security to the authorities.

But Paul and Silas must have returned, for in the Epistles Paul commends the Thessalonians for what they have done to make Christ known in all the region. Apparently, the city had been made a center from which to carry on missionary activity.

The membership in the church at Thessalonica seems to have consisted chiefly of Greeks, and women (Acts 17:4), and the same was true of the neighboring church at Berea, though men there are specifically mentioned (Acts 17:12). Some Jews also joined the Christian group, but the preponderance of Gentiles may account for some strange problems that arose in the church.

IN the new company of Christians were evidently some idlers and loafers, possibly drawn to the Christians by the teaching that one should share with and help his neighbor. These idlers sought to impose upon their more sincere and faithful brethren.

Paul's urging in his First Epistle that everyone should be quietly faithful in business, working with his own hands, was evidently not enough, for in his Second Epistle he plainly says that he who won't work shan't eat. Perhaps it is for this reason that Paul stresses the fact that he supported himself while there (I Thessalonians 2:9). Just how he managed to support himself while carrying on his travels and spiritual ministry is not clear, but Paul was a superman. He evidently counted his self-support a matter of privilege and pride, for Paul believed in a settled ministry (I Thessalonians 5:12-13), and here and elsewhere he asserted the principle that the laborer is worthy of his hire.
