

HITLER IS REPORTED KILLED

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP) — The Hamburg radio announced tonight that Adolf Hitler was killed this afternoon at his command post at the Reich's chancellery in Berlin. The German dictator fought "up to his last breath against Bolshevism," the announcement said. Admiral Karl Doenitz, commander of the German navy, has succeeded Hitler, the broadcast added.

The death was announced by the Hamburg radio, the only radio station remaining in Nazi hands. Whether all these German announced facts on Hitler's death there was no way of knowing, but it is recalled that in his order to German armies to invade Poland in September of 1939 Hitler said he would stay in uniform until death or victory.

The new Nazi leader appealed to the German people. He said "Give me your confidence. Keep calm and be disciplined. Only in that way will we be able to stave off defeat. The Hamburg broadcast announcing Hitler's death and the succession of Doenitz, said that Hitler picked Doenitz yesterday. There was no mention in the broadcast of Heinrich Himmler who had been reported dickering for surrender.

The broadcast implied, but did not directly state, that Hitler was slain in battle with the Russians. (The British Broadcasting Company reported that Hitler actually died of a stroke.) "Doenitz continued, 'The fuhrer has appointed me his successor as head of the state and as supreme commander of the Wehrmacht. I (am) determined to continue struggle.'"

House Votes To Recess Session Until Sept. 11

Resolution Must Have Concurrence Of Senate, Which Wants To Quit

AUSTIN, May 1 (AP)—A resolution recessing the general session of the legislature from May 22 to Sept. 11 was passed today by the house.

To become effective, the resolution would have to have senate concurrence. The senate, however, has voted to adjourn the session finally on May 10.

The direct vote on the recess resolution in the house was 67 to 58, with four present and not voting.

The May 22-Sept. 11 recess proposal, by Rep. Jo Ed Winfree of Houston, stirred the house to new debate on a plan for ending the session which began Jan. 9.

Moving to reconsider the resolution Winfree asserted he thought it was good when introduced and that it was still good in that it let the legislature keep its hands on the reins of state government in a time of emergency. He had theorized that the end of the war might require passage of emergency legislation when the session reconvenes in September.

Rep. S. J. Isaacks of El Paso argued against recess declaring that if any constitutional amendments were needed to benefit veterans or meet other postwar conditions the need should be apparent now since "everyone knows the end of the war in Europe is in sight."

A proposed amendment granting members of the armed forces the right to vote without payment of a poll tax during war or for one year thereafter or for 18 months after discharge has been submitted by this session for a vote of the people on Aug. 25.

Rep. Harley Sadler of Sweetwater shared Isaacks' view. "A recess would handicap the governor, state departments and business in general," he said.

No New Surrender Offer By Himmler

By The Associated Press
STOCKHOLM, May 1 — Count Folke Bernadotte flew back to Stockholm from Copenhagen today and a well-informed American said he might be bearing a German-Swedish agreement on peaceful surrender of Nazi troops in both Denmark and Norway.

The Stockholm radio said the Swedish foreign office had announced today that Count Folke Bernadotte "did not bring any new message to be handed to the Allies through the ministry."

The Swedish nobleman refused to say, upon arriving here, whether he had brought from Denmark a new communication from Heinrich Himmler, chief of the German Gestapo. He went into conference with Erik Boheman, undersecretary of state in the Swedish foreign office.

Danish underground sources in Sweden reported German troops already were moving out of Sjaelland, the island on which Copenhagen is situated, toward southern Jutland.

A Danish radio broadcast from Malmo recorded in Stockholm said the Germans had evacuated the Sjaelland towns of Slagelse, Nasted and Hilleroed and that German Red Cross workers were en route to Copenhagen to care for German refugees. It urged Danes to be calm.

The American informant said that whether a final agreement on procedure in Norway had been reached was still uncertain, but he expressed belief the Swedes had proposed or that the Germans had requested transportation for their Norwegian forces to Sweden for disarmament.

The American said the Allied reply to Himmler's first offer flatly informed the SS chief that the only way for Germany to capitulate would be through the field commanders of her opponents.

Reds Strain For Berlin Victory

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—Victory-flushed Soviet troops made a supreme bid to deal the death blow to flaming Berlin on this May Day. In the words of Marshal Stalin it was the "final assault."

A Red victory banner floated over the smoking ruins of the reichstag, where Hitler rose to power from the ashes of the reichstag fire of 1933. Heinrich Himmler's ministry of the interior was in Russian hands. Red army troops laid siege to the fuhrer's underground fortress in the Tiergarten. The Russians were at the triumphal arch, and across the Spree river from Berlin's Brandenburg gate, Berlin's cathedral.

Die-hard German remnants were compressed in the center of the blazing inferno that is Berlin, stubbornly keeping street crossings under a murderous cross fire and "killing in the process the civilian population of the city," a supplementary Moscow communique declared.

Marshal Stalin in a special Order of the Day said the Russian people were celebrating May Day "under conditions of the victorious termination of the great patriotic war."

His triumphant announcement, declaring that Soviet troops had "hoisted the banner of victory over Berlin," said the Germans had lost 1,000,000 men killed and 800,000 captured on the Eastern front in the last three or four months. He said the Nazis also lost 6,000 planes, 12,000 tanks and 23,000 cannon.

These latest figures raised German casualties announced by Moscow in less than four years of war to a total of 11,540,000.

Other victories were being scored far to the south. The Fourth Ukrainian army of Gen. Andrei I. Yeremenko seized Moravska-Ostrava, a vital war center known as "the Pittsburgh of Czechoslovakia."

North of Berlin Marshal Konstantin K. Rokossovsky's Second White Russian army and elements of Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's First White Russian army sped across the north German plain on a 100-mile front, and captured Greifswald and Wolgast.

Fifty Thousand Yanks Are Freed
WITH THE U. S. 14th ARMORED DIVISION, May 1 (AP) — In high spirits 50,000 Americans, half of them air force officers, almost mobbed 14th Armored Division tankmen today in one of the wildest liberations ever witnessed in Germany.

The Americans were among 130,000 Allied prisoners—including 37 high-ranking officers—freed at Stalag 7A and in the towns around Moosburg where the Germans had the biggest concentration of prisoners in Germany.

In contrast to the starvation conditions prevailing in the other liberated camps, the prisoners in the Moosburg area for the most part were in good physical condition. This was due to the presence among the prisoners of a number of Allied officers, including many colonels.

Plane Cut-Back Drafted By Army

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—A "one-front" airplane production schedule which may cut monthly output by as many as 2,000 planes by the end of this year has been drafted by the army air forces. About 7,000 craft now are being turned out each month.

The revised schedule, it was learned today, has been submitted to WPB's production readjustment committee for approval.

In effect, the new schedule writes off the European war so far as plane production is concerned. It involves only estimated army needs in the Pacific.

With the exception of the two giant bombers, the Boeing B29 Superfortress and the Consolidated Vultee B32, virtually all AAF combat planes are affected. Some of the cut-backs, however, are merely paper ones. This means that originally projected production peaks are being lowered, but that the effect will not be felt for many months.

Despite the lessening of army needs for planes, navy requirements are expected to continue at present or even higher levels.

The new army schedule calls for elimination by the end of this year of the Lockheed Lightning P-38, and reduced production in coming months of the AAF's other two "big three" fighters—the P-47 Thunderbolt and the P-51 Mustang.

Even the P-80 Shooting Star, the Lockheed-built jet-propelled fighter, figures in the production revision, but at a rather long range.

Allied Invasion Of Borneo Is Reported

Aussies Said Leading Drive
By LEONARD MILLIMAN
Associated Press War Editor
Australian troops who fought in the Middle East are "participating in an action against the Japanese in Borneo," Treasury Minister Joseph B. Chifley told the Australian parliament today.

This statement, made to the lower house and reported in a Canberra dispatch, apparently confirmed an earlier Tokyo radio report that Allied forces had invaded the oil-rich island of the Netherlands East Indies.

Minister Chifley's announcement was the first from any Allied source to lend credence to the enemy radio broadcast. In recent months, Tokyo consistently has been the first to report Allied invasions in the Pacific.

Such an assault, perhaps by a combined American and British force under command of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, would represent a 200 mile jump from the southern Philippines into the northernmost oil islands in the Dutch Indies.

Due west of the reported invasion British naval task forces reportedly shelled Nicobar and Andaman islands in the Indian ocean while armored columns pouring out of Burma's central oil field continued advancing toward Rangoon against light opposition.

In the southern Philippines, the U. S. 24th division brushed aside surprisingly light opposition as it advanced to within 17 miles of supposedly strongly-held Davao.

MOLOTOV MAY HAVE TO LEAVE CONFERENCE DUE TO WAR TURN

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
SAN FRANCISCO, May 1 (AP)—Word that Foreign Commissar Molotov soon may leave the United Nations conference because of war developments coincided today with new Big-Four efforts to draft management details of this world meeting.

It was learned that Molotov's departure, expected any day, would not reflect displeasure with the progress of the conference, but would be due entirely to the war situation. There have been reports that not only he but also Foreign Minister Eden, Foreign Minister Velloso of Brazil and other delegation chiefs may have to quit the city by mid-May.

At present, however, it was said Eden has no plans to leave for London.

Secretary of State Stettinius plans to remain here to see the entire conference through.

When Molotov leaves for Moscow, he is expected to be succeeded as head of the Soviet delegation by Andrei Gromyko, ambassador to the United States.

War Production Force Is Reduced

DALLAS, May 1 (AP) — Dallas county's massive war production force, which in August, 1944, employed 75,000 workers, has been reduced to 58,000, war manpower commission officials said today.

North American Aviation, which listed 24,500 employees in its August payroll announced plans to cut back to 30,000 by the end of 1945.

Firestone Industrial Products plant has pared its personnel by some 1,200 since the fall of 1944, officials said.

Mussolini's Body Taken To Morgue

MILAN, May 1 (AP)—The beaten, misshapen corpse of Benito Mussolini lay in a rude, wooden coffin in the Milan morgue today awaiting further disposition while conflicting reports spread over the fate of his military chief, Marshal Rodolfo Graziani.

One report said the former chief of the Italian army was at Allied headquarters. Other unofficial advices said Graziani had been sentenced to death and executed immediately.

The bodies of Mussolini, his young mistress, Claretta Petacci, and fascist leaders executed with him were removed to the morgue, reportedly at the request of Cardinal Schuster. Previously they had been displayed in a public square and later hung by the heels from the girder of a filling station.

Third Army In 58 Miles Of Hitler Hideout

WITH U. S. THIRD ARMY, May 1 (AP)—The U. S. 13th armored division drove 53 miles out of its Saar bridgehead today and reached the Inn river near Braunau, Hitler's birthplace on the Austrian-Bavarian border.

PARIS, May 1 (AP)—The Third Army crashed southward to within 58 miles of Berchtesgaden today as Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch sent his Seventh Army from captured Munich against Innsbruck and the Brenner Pass.

The Third Army entered Griesbach in its closest approach to Hitler's roost in the Alpine redoubt. The town near the Austrian border is 16 miles from Hitler's birthplace at Braunau and 47 from Salzburg, eastern rampart of the final Nazi hideaway.

Allied armies had overrun all southern Germany except the southeast corner of Bavaria and now were sending their tanks and infantry into Austria and Czechoslovakia.

Far to the north, American airborne troops and the British Second Army linked up beyond the Elbe in a solid bridgehead 29 miles wide and 12 miles deep which threatened imminently to cut off Schleswig-Holstein and Denmark. This could carve the northern redoubt in two.

In the center, the corridor between Germans in the south and north was widened steadily by additional contacts between the Russians and American armies.

Patton's 11th armored division crossed the Austrian border in force at Oberkappel, 27 miles northwest of Linz—a city which the Germans said was being approached by the Russians from west of Vienna. A meeting would hem in Czechoslovakia and trap all the Germans in Bohemia and Moravia.

The British in the north captured Schwabenbach and reached Sjhms, 17 miles due east of Hamburg and 24 miles south of Luebeck at the eastern base of the Danish peninsula. Sjhms is 58 miles below Kiel and 72 from Rostock, which Russian armies northwest of Berlin are approaching.

The U.S. 52nd airborne division had a three-mile deep bridgehead over the Elbe just upriver from the British.

Gen. Eisenhower hailed the capture of Munich, largest German city yet to fall, in a terse order of the day.

"To every member of the Allied expeditionary force: The whole AEF congratulates the Seventh Army on the seizure of Munich, the cradle of the Nazi beast!"

His appellation of "beast" possibly arose from fresh disclosures of horror at the nearby Dachau prison camp, freed just before Munich fell.

Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch, the hero of Guadalcanal, was the conqueror of Munich, third city of Germany with 828,325 residents.

Sleeves tell the story of summer fashion. Ingenious New York designers, forbidden by WPB to make any radical changes in the wartime silhouette, have concentrated on sleeves for style interest.

The newest summer styles have many tricks up their sleeves. There's the cap sleeve, which saves fabric and also allows you to show your bare brown arms.

There's the dolman sleeve (cut within legal limits) and the bracelet-length sleeve.

Most of the newest sleeves have deep, roomy armholes and a smooth, though wide, shoulder line.

Many are practically no sleeves at all, and others manage to give a draped effect to the bodice.

It's a sleeve season. So if you are looking for an up-to-the-minute summer frock, look first at its sleeves. They'll tell you if it's new.

BORDEN'S ANNOUNCE PURCHASE OF SNOWHITE CREAMERY FACILITIES

The Borden Company today took over operation of Snowwhite Creameries, it has been announced by G. W. Frier, president of Snowwhite.

Present employees will be retained and F. A. McCaskill will continue as manager.

Here to assist in handling of details of the shift are P. F. Edquist, Houston, vice-president of Borden's southern division, and Frank Somers, Houston, regional sales and advertising manager.

As soon as labor, equipment and material supplies will permit, Borden's will undertake a program of "modernization of which the community and Borden's can be proud," said Edquist.

The purchase of plants in Big Spring, Midland and Pecos evidences the company's interest in this section, according to Edquist. He foresees efforts to increase dairy production in this part of the country as a corollary to Borden's entry into this field.

In selling, said Frier, "we had one thought in mind. In fairness to our many good friends and customers, we wanted to sell to a concern that would maintain high standards of business practice and produce milk and ice cream of highest quality. Borden's long established policies cover both of these requirements."

West Texas is not a new field for the company, for plants have been operated at Lubbock, El Paso and other points for a number of years.

The name Borden is familiar in this locality, for adjoining Borden county and its county-seat of Gail are named for the Texas patriot, Gail Borden, who founded the company in 1857. Borden published the state's first newspaper, was one of the signers of Texas' declaration of independence. His realization of the need of purity in milk made him a pioneer in pasteurization. It was he who originated the Borden quality control plan.

English Looked At V-2 Before First One Fell

LONDON, April 30 (AP)—A sample German V-2 rocket bomb was flown here from Sweden by a U.S. army transport plane last August, a month before the first rocket fell on England, it was officially disclosed today.

The weird looking weapon weighing several tons had fallen virtually intact in Jung near Kalvar in southeast Sweden. The British were striving to discover the secrets of the new weapon and, after urgent diplomatic negotiations, neutral Sweden agreed to release the rocket, said a statement issued by the office of Brig. Gen. Earl S. Hoag, commander of the ATC European division.

Lt. Col. Keith N. Allen, Washington, D. C., later killed in action, was assigned the hazardous job of bringing back the V-2. He picked a crew consisting of Capt. Robert C. Durham of New York City, Lt. Robert J. Withrow of Calif., and a Norwegian radio operator.

They flew an unarmed unescorted C-47 across the North Sea and over a corner of German-occupied Norway to an airport near Stockholm where the strange cargo was waiting. The rocket had been dismantled and crated. When all the boxes were aboard there was barely enough room left for the crew to crawl in.

Within three hours after the plane landed back in England with the rocket, British scientists were busy putting it together again. The secrets they learned did much to prepare Britain for her last V-bomb ordeal.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 1 (AP)—George Bryan reported to deputy sheriffs that someone stole one of his turkeys in broad daylight. That night, a car stopped near his house, someone yelled, and the car drove away.

The next morning tucked beneath a rock he found five $1 bills and a note saying, "here is the money for the turkey."

Today On Home Front—Riddle Of Poland And Argentina At Frisco Meet

By JAMES MARLOW SAN FRANCISCO, May 1 (AP)—Here's a thumbnail sketch of why all the argument about Poland and Argentina at the United Nations no-more-war conference.

The question was: Should those two countries be permitted to take part in the conference?

The Latin American countries wanted Argentina here. Russia wanted Poland here.

Argentina wasn't invited because, although it is now at war with the axis, it is not a member of the United Nations.

It declared war only a month ago—under nudging by other Latin American countries—after trying to sit the war out.

And so far, Argentina has not been signed up as a member of the United Nations.

Poland—although it is a member of the United Nations—wasn't invited here but for another reason. This is it:

The present Polish government—it's only a temporary government—was formed by Polish refugees in Russia. They moved back into Poland behind the Russian armies and set up the government.

President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill at Yalta told Marshal Stalin the Polish government would have to be revised to make it more democratic and more truly representative of the Polish people.

Stalin agreed, but the Polish government hasn't been revised and therefore Poland was not invited to the conference.

When the Argentine question moved from committee to full conference session yesterday, Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov got up and argued against it on these grounds:

Why should Argentina be admitted, and not Poland, when Argentina until only a month or so ago was actually helping the axis? Poland, he pointed out, has been in the war against Germany from the start.

The conference listened politely to Molotov and then voted to invite Argentina here.

Pitching Gives Cubs, Tigers Good Start

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

If pitching in the early games tells the story, the Detroit Tigers and Chicago Cubs are headed for an October world series date.

While the Bengals have been slapping the ball at a .281 clip, Dixie Trout, Al Benton and Hal Newhouser have been throttling their American league opponents with a measly .192 batting average.

Six of Charley Grimm's Bruin hurlers have tossed winning complete games in 11 starts and four of them have been five-hitters or lower. Tops in both circuits is the one-hit effort by Hank Wyse against Pittsburgh, spoiled only by rookie Bill Salkeld's eighth inning single.

Russ Derry belted half the New York Yankees total of eight homers. The New York Giants have collected 12 and the Boston Braves 11.

Nine shutouts have been pitched in the National, three by Chicago with Claude Passeau, Bob Chipman and Wyse each contributing one. Of the seven hurled in the American, Detroit has three, two by Trout and one by Benton.

Of last year's six 20-game winners only two have more than one victory to their credit. Bill Vosselle of the Giants and Trout each have 3-0 records but Rip Sewell of Pittsburgh and Newhouser are struggling along with 1-2 marks.

Betty Says Babe Slightly Terrific

SAN ANTONIO, May 1 (AP)—Betty Jameson will meet her fellow Texan, Babe Didrikson Zaharias, in golf again soon but to hear her talk you get the impression Betty doesn't expect any different result from that of the challenge match they played for charity.

The two met in a 72-hole affair, part in California and part in Texas, and the Babe beat Miss Jameson, twice National champion, 10 and 8.

Betty described Mrs. Zaharias as "slightly terrific," declaring many women golfers have the same coordination—a few of them perhaps better—but none she ever saw had the strength or the driving power of the Babe.

"Mrs. Zaharias was swatting the ball with her woods for 250 yards consistently and more than once got 300 on her drives," said Miss Jameson in an awed voice.

Mrs. Zaharias has gone to Denver to join her husband and will practice there preparatory to entering the Western women's open tournament at Indianapolis June 16, an event in which Miss Jameson also will compete.

San Antonio is certain of '45 Track Crown

SAN ANTONIO, May 1 (AP)—San Antonio folks are reasonably certain of having the 1945 Texas interscholastic league track and field champion but just which school will come home with the cup is a question two coaches would like for somebody to answer.

Brackenridge will enter the meet at Austin Thursday a slight favorite in most books but several things have happened recently that indicate Thomas Jefferson may repeat with the title.

For one thing, Brackenridge has a flock of injuries to key men. For another, the new rule that limits qualification for the regional meet has taken away some likely point-gatherers.

In the regional Thomas Bickley won the mile run and Russell Reynolds placed second in the high jump. But these places were thrown out because Bickley and Reynolds had not qualified in the district meet. Unless these two are substituted for others on the squad, they can not compete at Austin.

Mack White, defending state champion in the low hurdles, has a foot injury and it is doubtful if he can run both the low and high hurdles. Mack White, another hurdler who has been contributing vital points, has a leg hurt that will handicap his efforts. Then, Art Sweet, who had been figured upon for a high place in the shotput, is nursing a sore arm.

On the other hand Jefferson is at full strength.

With both teams in top stride, it would be a close finish with Brackenridge a two or three-point favorite. But if the injured Eagles are not all up to form, Jefferson will be rated tops.

No other school in the state appears to have sufficient strength to challenge either for first place at Austin.

Try and Stop Me

DAILY STORY FROM THE BEST-SELLING BOOK
By BENNETT CERF

KNUTE ROCKNE had a brief whirl at professional football in its early days. In one of his first games, he faced Jim Thorpe, the great Indian athlete, and Thorpe's Canton Bulldogs at the Polo Grounds.

Thorpe was long past his prime, growing fat and sluggish, but he was still a great drawing card. Rockne was desperately anxious to make good. On one of the opening plays, Thorpe came lumbering around his end. Rockne spilled him.

As he rose, Thorpe whispered, "Listen, Rock. Don't do that no more. People paid to see old Jim run. Next time, let him go."

On the next play, Rockne spilled him again. Thorpe said nothing this time but on the very next play, he summoned some reserve force, and for a moment was the falling, irresistible runner of old. Rockne was knocked cold, and Thorpe galloped for a touchdown while the crowd cheered. Then the Indian returned to where Rockne was coming to, helped to pick him up, and grinned. "That's a good boy, Rock. You let old Jim run!"

GOOD NEWS! GOLF BALLS

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Golf balls—perhaps as many as 5,000,000—will soon be produced for civilian use.

Manufacture of this scarce sports item will be made possible under a planned revision of WPB rubber regulations to permit use of neoprene—a non-tire synthetic rubber—for the inside of the balls. The covers would be of balata, the gum rubber now used for "retreading old balls."

WPB officials said the revised rubber order should be issued within about ten days.

LUFKIN, May 1 (AP)—Time runs short for Lufkin High school's greatest athlete—slender Harmon Carswell, who made all-state in two sports and may climax his career with a No. 1 spot in a third.

Carswell was all-state in football in which he was ranked by leading authorities as the greatest passer in Texas schoolboy history. Next he was named on the all-state basketball team.

Now he's going to Austin for the Texas interscholastic league tennis tournament—his second trip. Last year he lost to the boy who won the championship, Bernard Bartzon of San Angelo. Bartzon isn't back and they expect around here that Harmon will be the state singles champion.

Scribe Thinks Spring Football Should Be Out In High Schools

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Dallas, May 1 (AP)—Your correspondent always has thought spring football should be abolished in high school so the sports that rightfully belong to that season might have a chance.

The stumbling block is the money made out of football. It is the sport that puts the cash in the coffers so track, baseball, tennis, golf and swimming might be carried on. Thus they play this game almost half the year and it overlaps the spring sports because the coaches want to do everything they can to field top-ranking teams.

It's difficult to have strong track and baseball teams with the best athletes over working out in spring football.

The solution, it seems to this column, is for the Texas interscholastic league to sponsor baseball. This sport will draw if properly supervised and put on a championship basis.

In the small town which has one high school there are not enough top athletes for all the sports. And you know which team is going to get the cream of the crop.

But suppose baseball was made into a paying sport? And it could be if the interscholastic league operated a program in Texas along the same lines as football and basketball.

Also, if there were no spring football, there would be good track teams in all towns and that, too, might be built into a sport paying for itself.

Harry Sittler, Waco high school coach, has the answer. He suggests that spring football be made optional. His idea is that if a school wants spring football it can have it but can't start fall training until Sept. 1. If a school doesn't want it, that school could open fall training in mid-August.

There are objections from many quarters. One is that if a school had a September game with another, things wouldn't be equal should one have held spring training in April, then had to wait until September to begin again, whereas the other had passed up spring training and began fall words the latter team would be in better condition.

But that's a false premise. A school having an early September game could do the same as its opponent about spring training.

Jews Burned Alive By Fleeing Nazi Guards

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
LANDSBERG, April 30 (AP) — Nearly 4,000 Jews from various parts of Europe were killed at concentration camp No. 4 which is located only a few miles from the jail cell where Adolf Hitler wrote his "Mein Kampf."

Only yesterday the few that could still walk were dragged along by the fleeing Nazi overlords.

Today I saw scores of charred bodies, hundreds of naked virtual skeletons, lying on the ground with unforgettable grimaces of extreme pain. I also saw and smelled the filthy hovels where they were herded until the fleeing SS guards set fire to them burning several hundred Jews alive.

Some 250 Germans including ministers, priests, farmers, businessmen and common laborers from the surrounding country were brought to the camp today on the orders of Col. Edward F. Sellier of Louisville, Ky., head of the 12th armored division's military government section.

German civilians were digging mass graves.

Standing amidst the burnt, tortured, wound-gashed corpses Sellier asked the Germans to remove their hats in tribute to men who "like yourselves could see, feel, hear, smell and taste like other humans but who were coldly and inhumanely murdered."

Sellier said "You may say that you weren't personally responsible for all this but remember you stood for the government which perpetrated atrocities like these."

Col. Sellier seized a heavy set stocky, bullet-headed man whose shaven head was smeared with iodine and stood him amidst the gruesome corpses and said: "I now produce for you the man who was commandant of this vile camp. Here's the man who was chiefly responsible for the tortures you see here with your own eyes which were inflicted on the unfortunates lying here."

The gravediggers angrily cried "Throw the wretch down here we'll finish and bury him." From among the 250 German visitors came shouts of "swine, beast, criminal." Some spat.

Concentration camp No. 4 was but one of 11 in this immediate area, near Landsberg prison where Adolf Hitler wrote Mein Kampf in 1923-24. All were said to be an overflow from Dachau, 12 miles northeast of Munich.

At camp No. 2, a half mile distant, we saw emaciated 15 and 16-year-old boys. They said they had worked superhumanly for five years, before their liberation by the Americans.

Practically all of the survivors of this camp of 3,000 were mental cases. Most of them were Jews. They cried, grew hysterical, screamed incoherently when trying to tell us their stories. All bore the marks of malnutrition and torture, gashed wounds, gangrenous toes, shallow sunken eyes, bones protruding from the skin behind which there was no flesh or fat, missing teeth.

Rabbi Jacob Bornstein of Lodz, Poland, said he had kept careful records and the inmates died at the rate of about 300 weekly.

The camp's captain insisted defiantly when I asked him what he had to say about the corpses lying at his feet. "I was the mere overseer on the outside. I didn't know what was going on in the inside. Whatever happened was the responsibility of Doctor Planke and his two assistants." G.I.'s standing around me gave him the Bronx cheer when I translated his statement.

Senate Unveils Walker Portrait

AUSTIN, May 1 (AP)—The senate in a solemn ceremony Monday witnessed the unveiling of a portrait of Major General Fred L. Walker, commander of the 36th division during some of its most stirring combat days.

Walker in his brief speech of appreciation told the senate he saw in the portrait, not himself, but the gallant men of the 36th who have fought to the heart of the enemy "through one of the greatest military crusades of history."

"What a fine place this world would be," he said, "if in times of peace we could exhibit the same gallantry, the same courage, the same self-sacrifice, that the men of the 36th have shown in war."

Sen. James Taylor of Kerens, who served as an artillery officer under Walker's command, recalled several occasions when Walker's leadership was outstanding. The first was going into Salerno.

"In the water offshore were dozens of landing craft circling around, undecided on whether or not to tackle the beach which had been reported too hot to land on."

Just at this moment, driving straight toward the smoking beach came General Walker's command landing craft with the general standing at the helm, motioning us in. A soldier said: "If it ain't too hot for the old man, it ain't too hot for me. Let's go."

"Almost with one motion, every craft in the water changed its course and headed for the beach."

Dear Friends and Customers:
The Borden Company acquired the Snowwhite Plant of Big Spring, Texas, on May 1st and will continue to operate as we have done in the past. There will be no employee changes and I will continue as plant manager.

Borden's entry into this territory assures the further expansion and development of the dairy industry. In affiliating with Borden's, we feel that we can better serve our customers, cooperate better with our milk producers and improve our plant facilities. The company enjoys a wide reputation for maintaining a high standard of business practices and of producing highest quality milk and ice cream. We appreciate and value your business greatly and ask for your loyal patronage in the future.

Yours very truly,

Destroying The Disease

Mussolini is dead, felled by the hands of the people whom he led to shame and ruin.

While there may be some that will say he should have been brought before a court of Allied representatives and sentenced to a proper fate...

The lowly mode of his death and the grisly display of the Italian people toward his body...

What has happened to the braggart and deceiver is of small consequence beside the issue of what will happen to the things which he espoused.

If the murder of this miserable creature is symbolic of the destruction of his form of nationalistic delusion, then there is cause for grim satisfaction.

Spread Enforcement

Once more we would like to sound a warning against a seemingly dangerous trend toward disregard for traffic regulations...

What we would like to see in addition to this is more stringent enforcement applied to driving conduct outside the downtown area.

Ernie Pyle Reports—

Ernie Amused To Be Called Colonel

Editor's Note: In addition to the story which appears here today, we will print several others which we have just received from Ernie on Okinawa.

By ERNIE PYLE OKINAWA (By Navy Radio)—There is one very small marine who is as nice as he can be...

The first afternoon I joined his company he didn't know who I was and as we passed, he said very respectfully, "Good evening, Colonel."

He was Corp Charles Bradshaw of (526 S. Holmes Ave.) Indianapolis. He is only 19 but on his third campaign in the Pacific.

In the Marines Corporal Bradshaw is called "Brady" for short. Before joining the marines he worked on a section gang for the Pennsylvania railroad.

has a slightly curved 25-cent piece imbedded in the handle. As he says, "to make it worth something."

Brady found two huge photograph albums in a cave. The albums are full of snapshots of Japanese girls and Chinese girls and young Japs in uniform...

Another Indianapolis marine I met on Okinawa was Pfc. Dallas Rhude (1437 E. Raymond St.) who used to be a newspaperman himself.

In fact he worked on our paper there, The Indianapolis Times. He started carrying the Times when he was eight, then got into the editorial room as a copy boy...

He is a replacement. In other words he is in the pool that fills up the gaps made by casualties. But since there have been very few casualties he hasn't replaced anybody yet.

Dallas spent 22 months in Panama, was home for a little while and now has been over here for four months. He says this Okinawa climate sure beats Panama.

Marines may be killers, but they're also just as sentimental as anybody else.

There is one pleasant boy in our company that I had talked with but didn't have any little incident to write about him, so didn't put

"Valley Of Decision" Long, But Good

By BOB THOMAS "Valley of Decision" an MGM picture starring Greer Garson and Gregory Peck with Donald Crisp, Lionel Barrymore, Preston Foster and Marsha Hunt. Running time: two hours.

HOLLYWOOD — With a top-drawer cast and a production which apparently spared no expense, "Valley of Decision" should make many green millions for MGM.

The story concerns the poor Irish Raffertys and the mill-owning Scotts in Pittsburgh. The families are finally joined only after considerable coyness on the part of Mary Rafferty (Greer Garson), indecision by Paul Scott (Gregory Peck) and many years of industrial and family strife.

"Valley of Decision" is a little lengthy, but most of the time it manages to remain an engaging narrative. There are enough powerful scenes and turns of plot to overbalance the more hackneyed touches.

Except for a weird collection of brooms, the picture is marked by thoughtful production. MGM showed considerable judgment in sticking to the narrative and not being sidetracked into excessive crowd and factory scenes.

characterization of epic ladies, although on some occasions she seems about to trip daintily over her brogue. Peck gives a wonderfully restrained performance. Lionel Barrymore provides a superb portrayal of the embittered Pat Rafferty, a welcome departure from Dr. Gillespie.

"Sally O'Rourke," a Paramount picture with Alan Ladd, Gail Russell, William Demarest, Bruce Cabot, Spring Byington and Stanley Clements. Running time: 99 minutes.

This apparently was made in a hurry, possibly on the theory that any action picture with Alan Ladd will make money. It probably will, too, because there is plenty of horse racing, gunplay and laconic Ladd dialogue.

However, the film is hampered by a flock of incongruities. A number of odds and ends are left dangling while the plot continues on its uninhibited way.

One of these is the fact that Ladd is established as a low character, falsifies jockey papers and in the end bumps off two people (self-defense, of course). However, he is released by authorities after a friendly chat with the D.A. Wherefore art thou, Hays Office?

The Ladd deserves better. Gail Russell, an intriguing dark-eyed beauty, William Demarest and Stanley Clements assist him in a losing battle against the script.

Life's Darkest Moment

With The AEF: Germans Want To Do Business But That's All Taboo

By WADE WERNER (Substituting for Hal Boyle) WIESBADEN, Germany, (AP) — Hope—or wishful thinking—is stirring again among the vanquished Germans of Wiesbaden, once an internationally popular health and recreation resort.

One gets the impression that the city would like to be to the Americans what Paris was to the German conquerors. The Germans spent money freely in Paris and had a good time while it lasted; many Wiesbadeners frankly are hoping the Americans will do likewise here.

Enterprising citizens have asked the military government for permission to open night spots for American officers and soldiers.

A constant stream of proposals for doing business with the Yanks flows across the desk of Maj. R. S. Fellows of Manchester (state not given), the AMG executive officer. All are rejected.

It seems difficult to make the people realize that the occupation this time is based on a policy entirely different than that of World War I.

The town now grasps the idea when the Red Cross starts operating Wiesbaden's great Kurhaus—once an entertainment center for the 200,000 visitors who came here yearly. The Kurhaus will be a recreation center for GI's.

The dances will conform, of course, to the non-fraternization rule. Many Wiesbaden girls would like to attend, but that's strictly taboo. The 90 WACs stationed here are likely to be popular when some 8,000 soldiers begin looking for dance partners.

Washington—

Presidential Honeymoon Now On

(Second of Two Articles) WASHINGTON — Nearly every new President who has taken the oath of office has enjoyed for a while, at least, a "honeymoon" with Congress.

There's no doubt that President Truman now is having his "honeymoon" with Congress. It may end, any time, for it is clear already that our new President is a blunt, stubborn fellow.

On the other hand, there are many indications that we may be entering an era of cooperation between the executive and legislative branches of government that is practically unparalleled.

Here are some of the reasons: (1) For the first time in a quarter of a century (since President Harding) here is a man in the White House who served his political apprenticeship in Congress.

(2) As Senator from Missouri, President Truman earned the respect of Democrats and Republicans alike. In his years as head of the embattled Truman committee investigating all phases of the war effort, there never was issued a minority report.

(3) President Truman counts among his friends on the Republican side of the aisle such opponents of the previous administration as Senators Vandenberg, Taft, and Ferguson. He was closely associated with the bi-partisan authors of the new well known B2-H2 resolution for participation in a postwar world peace enforcement organization. Those authors included Republican Senators Ball and Burton as well as Democratic Senators Hill and Hatch.

(4) Since taking office, President Truman has conferred with almost as many Republican as Democratic leaders of Congress in both chambers. Even that former anti-administration die-hard, Democratic Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, of Montana, has been holding olive branch telephone conversations with the White House.

All of this doesn't mean that the day of controversy in the two chambers of Congress is over, even for a while.

The new President had hardly become familiar with the top of his new desk before the question of extending the reciprocal trade treaties developed into a stiff fight.

But such battles aren't important as a refutation of the fact that the emphasis in government is changing unless President Truman enters the arena. That, say his closest advisors, he won't do. Behind closed doors, he may inform proponents and opponents, alike of his views, but he won't issue any mandates to the legislative branch of government, as President Roosevelt did.

President Truman is giving the legislative arm an opportunity it hasn't had since it rebelled and made a mess of President Hoover's recovery plans following the crash of 1929.

SWEET MOTOR LOS ANGELES, May 1 (AP)—Jessie Sachs, driving home from a theater, remarked that "The old bus sounds pretty sweet."

President Truman is giving the legislative arm an opportunity it hasn't had since it rebelled and made a mess of President Hoover's recovery plans following the crash of 1929.

ATLANTA, May 1 (AP)—An Atlanta GI found a fox in his foxhole. Lt. Jack C. Bradford of the Third Army was the GI. He sent the skin to his mother here. Mrs. S. A. Bradford's going to have B'r'er Fox mounted. So her son can back up his post-war "tall tales" with proof.

Maria Jeritza, opera soprano, was born in Moravia in 1888. She was in the times as fast inn iron as in the air.

Notes Of A Texas Reporter—

Plenty Of Texans At Conference

By PAUL BOLTON SAN FRANCISCO, May 1 (Sp) Notes of a Texas reporter in San Francisco:

Where Senator Tom Connally's heart is, is demonstrated by a slip of the tongue.

He was discussing the progress of the conference to a group of friends. Something came up about a position the American delegation would take. And Texas Tom picked it up with this: "At the Texas Delegation meeting we did so and so." He continued wholly unaware of the slip, and only two men in the room caught it.

A little later on the senator was expressing a personal opinion about whether one nation should be admitted to San Francisco, and it brought forth a typically East Texas mixup: "Oh, I think we ought to let her in, if she'd sign up to be a good boy."

You run into Texans two or three times a day. Sterling Fisher, representing the public service department of the National Broadcasting company in New York, was trying to arrange a Connally interview. He proudly claimed no less than three towns in Texas: San Antonio, where he was born; San Marcos, where he lived; and Austin, where he attended school.

Lt.-Commander Wilson Fox of the United States Navy, stationed at San Francisco, came by the Palace hotel to call on his sister, Mary Frances Fox of Georgetown, who has finally been accredited as a Texas correspondent.

Another from Georgetown is Dr. William M. Patterson, who speaks several languages and is a member of the French Legion of Honor. He came to Senator Connally's office with a letter from Dr. George Hester, professor of government.

Silliman Evans, the publisher of the Tennessean, celebrated his arrival in San Francisco by giving a dinner for all the Texas newspaper people he could find on short notice. Evans spent the evening regaling the crowd with stories about when Byron Utecht of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram gave him a job as the Star-Telegram's Austin correspondent. Evans was one of the men who gave information to the then Attorney General Dan Moody which helped launch Moody on his way to the governorship of Texas.

To prove he was still a better Texan than any one present, Evans asked such questions as, "Where did Jim Ferguson open his campaign for governor?"

Bill Kittrell of Dallas and Washington, who is an assistant on transportation matters at the conference, says he has a personal and selfish interest in seeing the conference achieve its objective of a real peace organization.

Bill has a son flying a B-29 somewhere in the Pacific, and if the boy gets through this war, Kittrell doesn't want him going into another.

Dr. Francis Wilcox, the expert adviser to Senator Connally on world peace organizations, has become so Texanized in his working atmosphere that he continually hums one song: "Deep in the Heart of Texas."

Dr. Logsdon Goes In For Aberdeen Angus Breeding

COLORADO CITY, May 1—First foundation herd of registered Aberdeen Angus cattle has been bought by Dr. Harry A. Logsdon, Colorado City physician and surgeon and "gentleman farmer" who owns and operates a 479-acre farm-ranch which he bought from the Dr. B. F. Dulaney estate three years ago.

The nucleus for what he plans to increase to 100 head of registered stock consists of 10 choice females and a sleek young prize bull, Brook Boy Blackcap the Fifth, 10-month-old animal bought from Tommy Brook of Camp San Saba, near Brady, when the doctor and two Colorado City stockmen, A. L. McSpadden and D. L. Lowe, attended a sale recently.

The stock has been shipped here and is attracting interest as the only registered herd of the Aberdeen Angus breed known to be in Mitchell county. J. L. Schaffer is the Logsdon foreman and in addition to the new herd is running 60 head of Herefords and raising cotton and feedstuffs.

"We will dispose of the White-face cattle," the doctor said when expressing his hopes for pioneering here with the Aberdeens. "Then when this war is over and I have time to take a deep breath, I'd like to try these new fellows on a comfortable scale, if not a big scale."

Oil Production Sets New World's Record

TULSA, Okla., May 1 (AP)—Daily average crude oil production in the United States for the week ending April 28 has broken an earlier record with a total of 4,812,000 barrels per day or 10,200 barrels higher than the previous high of April 14, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

Only two decreases were of note. Illinois' dropped 5,300 to 200,300 barrels, and Kansas slumped 8,550 to 264,600.

The largest gain was in Oklahoma, which came up 16,200 barrels to 363,550.

Twelve Doughboys Seize Many Nazis

MILAN, Italy, April 30 (AP) (Delayed) (AP)—With a German colonel as a guide Sgt. Frank Makowski of St. Cloud, Minn., and 11 other doughboys today rounded up twice their number of Nazi colonels and several hundred German troops.

They were Germans who had barricaded themselves in buildings when the partisans took over Milan four days ago and who refused to surrender except to Allied troops.

An estimated 105,000,000 days were lost through off-the-job accidents last year.

Cancer kills more men than any other disease, except diseases of the heart and circulatory system.

Hurdle Cleared In Coal Case

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP) — John L. Lewis cleared the last government hurdle confronting his new soft coal contract today, but negotiations for an anthracite agreement skidded into the War Labor Board as a dispute.

Economic Stabilizer William H. Davis stamped a final okay on the bituminous wage agreement and in addition authorized an average 16-cent-a-ton price increase to offset its costs to the operators.

The hard coal contract expired last midnight, and work stoppages in the anthracite pits were prepared for despite a WLB order to continue production under terms of the expired agreement. The board promised any wage agreements would be made retroactive to today.

An 11th hour effort by Labor Secretary Perkins to persuade the miners and anthracite operators, meeting in New York, to agree to a contract she proposed failed.

Maj. Hoover Included In Story Of Nurses In Field Hospitals

An article appearing in the Tuesday morning edition of the Fort Worth Star Telegram concerning American nurses accompanying the 11th armored division in their trek across Germany, mentioned Major Thomas Hoover, son of N. G. Hoover of Midway, who is commanding officer of the 59th field hospital.

Of the nurses who are accompanying the division Major Hoover said "The girls deserve the best we can give them. They have been under artillery fire several times and once for five nights in a row, the Krauts shelled us with a railroad gun. The shells fell within 20 paces of our tents, but the nurses worked on. Twenty paces nearer, and we would all have been wiped out. We had 40 odd non transportable cases then. Several nurses had opportunities to return to general hospitals, but they preferred to stay with the armor despite the hardships."

FEA Sells Supply Of Turkish Mohair

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP) — Sale by the Foreign Economics Administration of approximately 7,000,000 pounds of Turkish mohair was disclosed today by Rep. Fisher (D-Tex.).
